

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2611

Fatty Luo also echoed, "That's right. In the past, he was the only one who did it. This time, he got a lot of people. It's really good for him. However, those four good-for-nothings are only qualified to work for Old Man Yao."

Everyone echoed and laughed. Yun chujiu treated these people as Barking dogs and followed Old Man Yao to the area he was in charge of.

Old Man Yao looked at the four of them, then he said weakly, "I don't know how to cook, I only know how to make porridge and steamed buns, so I'm in charge of breakfast. I don't have any other requirements for you, as long as you come to work on time.

"You can leave work after noon. Now you can go to the dormitory to rest. "The dorms are at the back. Just pick a few rooms."

Yun Chujiu and the other three agreed and walked out from the back door of the big kitchen.

Yun chujiu mumbled as she walked, "Quarter past nine? Oh My God, doesn't that mean I have to get up and work before dawn? If I knew this would happen, I would have stayed in the general affairs office! I wouldn't have come to the big kitchen to work no matter what."

Xue Wuji and the other two were also unhappy. Who would want to get up early. Fortunately, they could get off work at noon, so they had more free time than the other odd-job workers.

The four of them took a turn and saw a courtyard. They randomly picked four courtyards that were connected together and took out the identity jade tokens that Steward Tang had given them before they walked in.

After all, the Hunyuan sect was a super sect. Even the courtyard of the odd-job workers looked pretty good. It was well-behaved and there was no problem for them to live in it.

The four of them were exhausted after the tests over the past few days, so they took a simple bath and then went to rest.

Yun chujiu slept until night. After a simple dinner, she went back to bed and continued sleeping.

While she was half asleep, Xue Wuji and the other two knocked on the door outside the courtyard, indicating that it was time to start work.

Yun chujiu finally managed to suppress her anger. She got up and followed Xue Wuji and the other two to the kitchen.

When the four of them arrived, Old Man Yao was already busy.

Fortunately, Xue Wuji and Jin Zhi had been trained by Yun Chujiu to burn the fire, so the two of them started to burn the fire. Yun Chujiu and ye Bingyu helped old man Yao.

The steamed bread noodles were all prepared the day before, so there wasn't much skill involved in making porridge. Therefore, even though old man Yao brought four new hands, they still did it in an orderly manner.

Yun Chujiu felt that if she didn't wake up too early, this job would have been pretty good. However, for someone like her who was angry when she woke up, waking up early was simply killing her.

Old Man Yao simply mixed a few side dishes, and this breakfast was considered complete. After all, the food of the odd-job workers couldn't be as exquisite as that of the inner sect disciples. It was enough to fill their stomachs.

When the sky was bright, the odd-job workers came to eat breakfast one after another.

Steamed buns, porridge, and side dishes were placed in front for everyone to take. Yun Chujiu and the other three people were at the side to maintain order.

Old Man Yao frowned. Why were there so many people coming for breakfast today? Some of these odd-job workers would bring more breakfast every few days. Why were they all here today?

Then, Old Man Yao was surprised to find that most of the disciples' gazes were on Yun Chujiu. Some were curious, some were disdainful, and some were envious. What was going on?

Yun Chujiu's face didn't look good. Of course, she didn't care about these gazes. It was just that this guy hadn't gotten out of bed yet. Moreover, others were eating her and looking at her. Was she feeling very aggrieved? !
