

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2628

There were two ways to obtain sect contribution points. One was to complete a mission issued by the sect or an individual, and the other was the sect's reward.

After Yun Chujiu and the other two had a general understanding of the situation, they went to the mission announcement board outside the general affairs office to check the missions that could be accepted.

Yun chujiu skimmed through it. Many of the missions were limited, and at the end, they were labeled as inner or outer disciples.

There weren't many missions that were allowed for handymen. After all, handymen couldn't leave the sect, and their spiritual power was low. All they could do was some physical work.

Yun Chujiu finally set her eyes on a mission that Tianji Peak had just issued, which was to raise snow jade silkworms.

She heard from the handymen who came for breakfast that Mu Wu was no longer in charge of the snow jade silkworms because of his eye injury. Instead, he was in charge of another disciple.

However, none of the odd-job workers were willing to work in the Mulberry Garden. After all, the Snow Jade Silkworms had been restless recently and often attacked people.

That was why there was a mission to raise the snow jade silkworms on the mission board, and the contribution points that were marked at the back were a hundred points.

One had to know that such a low-level mission usually only had ten contribution points.

Yun Chujiu weighed the pros and cons in her heart and finally decided to accept the mission. Therefore, she took the identity jade tokens of the three of them and scanned the mission. The mission became dark, which meant that someone had already accepted the mission.

As it was already late, Yun Chujiu decided to report to the Mulberry Garden the next day.

After leaving the general affairs office, Ye Bingyu asked in puzzlement, "Little Jiu, if we go to raise snow jade silkworms, what about the work in the canteen?"

"Isn't that simple? We can just spend money to hire people!" "You have to know that the spiritual energy in the mulberry garden is much denser than in the big kitchen. It's very beneficial for your cultivation." "Moreover, the wool comes from the sheep. I just need to get some cocoons to pay for the hire."

Jin Zhi and Ye Bingyu looked at each other. Was that what Yan Guo said?

Yun Chujiu arrived at Old Man Yao's courtyard and shouted, "Old Yao, Old Yao, are you there?"

Old Man Yao walked out of the courtyard while coughing. He sized up Yun Chujiu and said, "Little girl, do you need something from me?"

Yun Chujiu said with a smile, "Old Man Yao, this is the deer leg that I roasted in the back mountain, and this gourd spirit wine is a gift for you."

Old Man Yao took the thing over, opened the cork of the wine gourd, and smelled it. The wrinkles on his face relaxed a little. "Tell me, what do you need from me?"

"Old Man Yao, the three of us accepted the task of raising Snow Jade Silkworms issued by Mulberry Garden today. It will last for a month. When the snow jade silkworms have cocooned, we will complete the task."

“Don’t worry, I will hire someone to complete the task in the kitchen. It will definitely not delay your work. Can you please do us a favor?” Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Old Man Yao’s eyes flickered. “Raise Snow Jade Silkworms? I heard that the silkworms have been very irritated recently and have attacked several people. Aren’t you afraid of being attacked?”

“Old Man Yao, aren’t the servants all men? I think the snow jade silkworms are lustful. They won’t lose their temper when they see us three pretty girls.”

The corners of elder Yao’s eyes twitched, he coughed and said, “In that case, you can go. However, don’t blame me for not reminding you. The Snow Jade Silkworm is the treasure of Tianji Peak. If you kill a few of them like killing chickens, you won’t be able to bear the consequences.”
