

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2643

Although the large kitchen knife could move the large coffin, it was also very laborious. Yun chujju hacked for a long time before she finally made a hole.

Yun chujju could not wait to look inside the coffin. However, the thing inside was not a red-furred dumpling or a crystal corpse.

Yun chujju rubbed her eyes. She really could not believe what she saw.

There was actually a blade of grass inside. Before Yun Chujju could take a closer look, the guai Cao had already taken control of her body. The guai Cao easily plucked the blade of grass, chewed it, and swallowed it.

The guai Cao's wish was fulfilled. It passed the control of its body to Yun Chujju, and then it began to form the shape of a heart to act cute.

Yun chujju was so angry that she gritted her teeth, but there was nothing she could do. Unless it was a very important time, the great void mirror and the black bead would only watch coldly from the side. They would not stop the guai Cao's actions.

Yun chujju saw that the guai Cao had already eaten the grass, so she had no choice but to put the big coffin and the four chains into her storage ring. No matter what, these things should be treasures.

Yun chujju suddenly thought of something. The grass that was eaten by the guai Cao had first entered the coffin in the form of a seed. Perhaps the coffin was just a trunk at that time.

The plant grew slowly on the nourishment of the tree trunk. Later, the tree trunk was discovered and made into a coffin without a lid. However, who did this? And for what?

To reflect on the past?

This place would not become a forbidden area for no reason, and elder Li would not appear here for no reason. Could it be related to the plant?

Also, who was the one who created the illusion? Perhaps it was because this place was set up with an illusion?

Also, why did the four chains break after her blood seeped into the stone slab?

Just as Yun Chujiu was puzzled, the Stone Hall began to tremble. Rocks began to roll down from above her head. Oh No, this place was about to collapse!

Yun chujiu did not have time to think about anything else and ran desperately towards the stone steps.

However, it was too late!

Huge rocks began to fall from the top of her head. Yun chujiu gritted her teeth. She could only try her best! She took out a bunch of explosive talismans and threw them into the distance.

Her idea was very simple. From the distance, she estimated that this place should not be too far from the surface of the Earth. After the place collapsed, she could exit through the gap.

Things went unexpectedly smoothly. A corner of the Stone Hall collapsed. Yun chujiu could see the starry sky outside. She did not care much and jumped out from the gap.

A certain Jiu was once again in a tragedy!

Damn it!

Who could tell her why she fell down the cliff after jumping out of the hole?

A certain Jiu had spent a lot of effort to fix herself on the cliff wall. However, it was also good. Anyway, she had originally planned to go to the Mulberry Garden on the other side of the cliff.

However, she did not have time to set the Siguo residence on fire. She did not know if it would leave a disaster behind.

Just as Yun Chujiu was thinking about it, she noticed that the stone wall where she was standing started to tremble.

Damn! Would the cliff collapse as well? !

Yun chujiu did not dare to be careless. She did not care about any future trouble, so she accelerated and climbed down the cliff.

Just as she landed at the bottom of the cliff, the bottom of the cliff started to collapse. This fellow wanted to cry, but he had no tears. He quickly climbed up to the other side of the cliff.

The rumbling sounds kept coming. Yun chujiu caught a glimpse of a signboard. There were three bright words on it — Si Guo Ju.
