

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2644

Yun Chujiu was stunned at first, then she grinned!

It seemed that the area where Siguo lived had also collapsed. Even if someone went down the cliff, they would not be able to find anything. This time, she did not have to worry about being discovered.

This fellow happily began to climb up the cliff. She wanted to sneak into the Mulberry Garden before anyone came and climbed up the cliff!

As for the fact that someone had seen her walking towards the forbidden area during the day, since no one had caught her in the act, she just had to deny it!

After this fellow climbed up the cliff, only then did she realize that, F * ck! She was simply too stupid! Since there was no ban on flying down here, why didn't she just sit on the Chopping Board and fly up?

However, this fellow could also be considered to have accidentally bumped into her. Because she did not use her spiritual power, she was not discovered by the higher-ups of the chaos origin sect who had rushed over one after another.

Yun chujiu hurriedly slipped into the mulberry garden and changed into a set of clothes in the small room next to the silkworm room. Only then did she let out a long sigh of relief.

No matter what, it was still considered to have been smooth sailing this time. She had gotten rid of elder Li and even obtained a large coffin. Guai Cao had also gotten what she wanted, and everyone was happy.

As she had not eaten at night, this fellow took out some food and casually ate a bit. Not long after she lay on the bed, there was a knock on the door outside the Mulberry Garden.

“Open the door! Open the door!”

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes and messed up her hair and clothes. Only then did she open the door. There was an old man and several disciples standing at the door.

Although Yun Chujiu did not know this old man, she knew the clothes of those disciples. They were actually law enforcement disciples.

Yun chujiu showed a puzzled expression. “Elder, why are you here so late at night? By the way, I heard a loud noise just now. Did Something Happen? Did the Earth Dragon turn over? Do you need to move the Snow Jade Silkworm?”

The old man sized up Yun Chujiu. He saw that her eyes were hazy, her hair was messy, and her clothes were not neat. It was obvious that she had just woken up from her sleep.

“Nothing much. Is there anything unusual about the Snow Jade Silkworm?”The old man asked without batting an eyelid.

“I went to take a look just now and was a little restless. I comforted her a little better. “Fortunately, I stayed here on duty today. Otherwise, I was really worried that the snow jade silkworms would be scared out of their wits. “Elder, what exactly happened? “If I wasn’t worried about the snow jade silkworms, I would have gone out to take a look!”Yun Chujiu’s eyes flashed with a strong light of gossip, she stretched her neck and wanted to look outside.

The old man showed an impatient expression. “Nothing happened. Just take good care of the Mulberry Garden.”

After saying that, the old man left in a hurry with his disciples.

Yun chujiu muttered to herself, "What exactly happened? Forget it, I'll go and take a look at the snow jade silkworm. I don't want to be scared out of my wits and end up in a cocoon!"

As she spoke, Yun Chujiu ran quickly to the silkworm room. From the corner of her eye, she caught a glimpse of a black shadow flashing past.

Yun chujiu pursed her lips. Playing this game with her? She was really too inexperienced!

It seemed that this round was over. It was better to be careful in the future. Perhaps someone had already set their eyes on her.

Yun chujiu pushed open the door of the silkworm room. She saw that the Snow Jade Silkworms were slightly restless. Yun chujiu comforted them a few times. After seeing that they had regained their calm, she returned to her own room.

As the people outside turned upside down, a certain Jiu had a good sleep.

A certain Jiu was sleeping soundly when the kitten's crying voice sounded in her mind, "Master, Help! Help!"
