

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2649

No matter how precious the Snow Jade Silkworm was, it shouldn't have rewarded Yun chujiu and the others with so many contribution points!

Spending dozens of days to raise the insects and obtaining 7,500 contribution points?

How could people like them, who came and went in the wind and rain, barely survive and earn a few hundred contribution points? ! How could they live? !

This was too unfair!

Everyone realized something else. The contribution points of the disciples of the Hunyuan sect were displayed on the merit monument in real time. Mo Han was originally ranked first, but wasn't she replaced by Yun Chujiu and the other two?

Three odd-job workers from the big kitchen stepped on the heads of all the disciples. This was too ironic!

"Let me tell you, the good days of those three odd-job workers have come to an end! The merit monument only shows the names of the top 100 disciples. Now that they've been pushed up by three odd-job workers, someone will definitely find trouble with them."

"That's right. The merit tablet has always been under the rule of true disciples and inner disciples. There must be someone who dislikes them. Let's just wait for a Good Show!"

"Hey, what are you doing running so fast?"

"I'm going to see if Mulberry Garden is still hiring!"

Yun Chujiu didn't know what was going on outside. At this moment, she was so shocked by the library of the primordial chaos sect that she couldn't speak. In her impression, the library was just rows and rows of bookshelves with Jade slips and sheepskin books on them. However, who could tell her why the books in the Library of the primordial chaos sect were floating in the air?

Jin Zhi and ye Bingyu were also dumbfounded. These books were floating in the air. How could they see them? "Do we have to jump up and catch them ourselves?"

The three of them were at a loss. They could only watch the others' movements from the side.

After watching for a while, they finally understood that as long as they injected their spiritual sense into the jade token in their hands, they would be able to see the classification inside. After choosing a certain book, that book would fall into the hands of those who needed it.

Aiyo!

It was actually so advanced?

A certain Jiu gave it a try and immediately felt that it was very interesting. Hence, this idiot began to change books non-stop. Everyone saw that one book after another fell into a certain Jiu's hands. After being flipped through a few times, she changed into a new book.

Everyone despised her. She was really a country bumpkin who had not seen the world before!

A certain Jiu discovered that the books on this level were not of much help to her. They were all low-level pill recipes and talisman books. Fortunately, there were some miscellaneous books that were quite interesting. The things recorded on them were all strange and strange things.

Yun chujia found a record in a book. It was somewhat similar to the large coffin that she had obtained.

It was rumored that there was a strange tree in ancient times. It was called "Citron". Citron had a strange fragrance and was a kind of precious spice. After making the citron into a coffin, the person inside would never decay.

This was not too strange because coffins made of some materials made of ten-thousand-year-old ice also had this effect. The more strange thing about the citron-made coffin was..

Yun chujia almost fainted from anger when she saw this. The words at the back of the coffin had become blurry and nothing could be seen anymore!

Normally, the writing materials used in this kind of sheepskin ancient scroll would not be affected for hundreds of thousands of years. How could it be affected here?

Yun chujia did not give up and flipped through the pages. The words at the back had all been affected. She was so angry that she was twitching. It was not easy for her to find a valuable book, but it turned out to be like this.

No matter what, this meant that there was something extraordinary about the coffin. She just had to keep it for now.
