

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2651

"Yun Chujiu, Jin Zhi, Ye Bingyu, you were originally servants in the big kitchen, but you went to Tianji Peak's mulberry garden to earn contribution points. Do You Know Your Crime?" A law-enforcing steward said with a gloomy face.

"No," Yun Chujiu said in a crisp voice.

Everyone was dumbfounded. How could she say "No" so righteously? Did she really not know or was she stubbornly resisting?

The law enforcement manager slammed the table. "How dare you! All of you are leaving your posts without permission! According to the Academy's rules, those who leave their posts without permission will be punished by forfeiting the sect's resources for three years, and they will have to reflect on their actions for half a year. In addition, all the contribution points that you have received will be forfeited."

Some of the onlookers were gloating, some were sighing, and most of them were just watching the show. Yun chujiu had caused a lot of trouble during the entrance test, and now she had committed a crime less than two months after entering the sect. She was really a troublemaker.

However, the evidence was conclusive. She could not refute it even if she wanted to. She could only wait to think about it!

"There are indeed records of desertion in the 105 rules of the sect. However, there are a few more detailed rules behind it. Could it be that this steward did not see it?"

"That's right. We did go to Mulberry Garden to raise snow jade silkworms, but did we delay the work in the big kitchen? "According to the sect rules, if we didn't cause any losses, we could just give a verbal warning and forfeit half a year's worth of supplies. I don't know why you're punishing us so severely?"

“Could it be that you’re jealous because we’ve received so many contribution points? “If that’s the case, then I advise you to stop being a law enforcement disciple and just go to the Mulberry Garden to raise snow jade silkworms! “However, I’m afraid that Snow Jade Silkworms won’t like people like you. After all, Snow Jade silkworms only like people with a good heart.”

Regardless of whether it was the crowd or the law enforcement manager, never in their wildest dreams did they expect that there would be a handyman who dared to contradict the law enforcement manager so boldly when he was being punished, moreover, although she didn’t point at the manager’s nose and scold him, her words clearly implied that he had a vicious heart.

Everyone felt that although what Yun Chujiu said made sense and they indeed did not deserve such a heavy punishment, the law enforcement office had plenty of ways to deal with the three odd-job workers, so why go against them head-on? There would be a lot of trouble in the future.

The manager of the law enforcement office was so angry that his face turned red. He slammed the table hard. “You, you dare to contradict me like this? You’re really, really guilty!”

“TSK tsk, which rule says that you are superior as a manager of the law enforcement office? Don’t tell me that you wronged us and we can only accept it?”

Looking at your behavior, you must have done a lot of wrong cases in the past, right? Don’t tell me that you have done a lot of immoral things by using your official position for personal gain, using your official position for personal revenge? “This time, you are targeting the three of us. Did you also receive some benefits from someone?”Yun Chujiu said with a cold smile.

Boom!

The crowd instantly exploded!

They had never heard of Yun Chujiu’s tone before! Even if they had some opinions about the law enforcement department’s tyranny, they could only keep it in their hearts. How could they dare to point it out in front of them? ! It had to be said that this Yun Chujiu was too bold? ! Was she not planning well?

The law enforcement manager's face alternated between green and white, feeling guilty and angry. he shouted, "Nonsense! Men, escort them to the No. 18 meditation cave immediately!"

Everyone cried out in surprise. There were different levels of meditation caves in the Chaos Origin sect. The higher the number of meditation caves, the more severe the punishment inside. If Yun Chujiu and the others went to the No. 18 meditation cave, not to mention half a year.., they would probably lose their lives in half a day.
