

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2668

A certain Jiu arrived at the third floor with only two strikes, and she still received a pile of corpses.

This time, before Yun chujiu could start chopping, she had just taken out her kitchen knife when she was transported to the fourth floor.

The fourth floor was still filled with corpses.

A certain jiu sighed as she collected the corpses. Damn it, she was clearly here to scam, how did she become a corpse collector now?

Fortunately, the fifth floor was no longer a corpse, but to a certain jiu, it was better to be a corpse!

A demonic beast was staring at her like a tiger eyeing its prey. That demonic beast looked very similar to the bloodthirsty lion, the only difference was that this demonic beast had a horn on its head.

F * ck, it was actually a 47th level golden-furred hou. 47th level was equivalent to the ninth floor of the spiritual space realm for humans! Not to mention her, even if old man Bai Li came, it would be a waste!

“That overlord Beast speaks but doesn’t act. It would be great to have friends come from afar. Why don’t we have a good chat about life? Ah, no, Shou Sheng?” Yun Chujiu decided to hook up with him first. What if this Jin Maohou was more understanding!

Jin Maohou rolled his eyes in disdain. Stupid Human!

“Well, Lord Hou, are you hungry? I have all kinds of meat and vegetables here. I have everything, from flying in the sky, running on the ground, and swimming in the water. As long as you need it, I can give it to you!”

Jin Maohou ignored her and expressed its needs with practical actions. That was to eat her!

Yun chujiu saw that her strategy of hooking up with him had failed and immediately shouted in exasperation, "Don't be so shameless! If you fight me head-on, who knows who will die!"

Jin Maohou roared angrily. Its roar contained a huge pressure that could attack humans. It felt that once it cried out, that weak human chick would collapse to the ground. It might even bleed from its seven orifices and die.

Who would have thought that the human little girl would act as if nothing had happened and even throw a big bag of things at it.

Jin Maohou used its claws to pull, and Little Jiu's secret weapon, the Chili Face, hit Jin Maohou's face.

Jin Maohou was so hot that tears and tears flowed down its face as it roared furiously.

Yun Chujiu did not take the opportunity to attack Jin Maohou. She knew her own limits. Even if Jin Maohou's eyes were blinded by the chili noodles, her attack would not cause any substantial damage to it.

Moreover, a certain jiu knew that Jin Maohou's biggest attack method was to roar. Unfortunately, it was useless against her. She only needed to dodge its physical attacks.

This guy began to chop the wall with a big kitchen knife. As he did so, he shouted,

"Qi Ling, I'm warning you. Quickly let me out, or I'll build a door myself!"

This guy was very thorough. Jin Maohou must have been reared by the Qi ling of the Black Tower or a formation beast. Rather than fighting with Jin Maohou, it was better to fight with the Qi Ling.

The disciples who were on guard outside the formation were surprised to find that the black tower trembled a little. The disciple remembered what had happened before and endured it. He did not report it. If he was also labeled as having bad eyesight, it would be terrible!

Jin Maohou's tears flowed all over the floor and finally eased the discomfort in his eyes. He stared at Yun Chujiu who was building the door with his bloodshot eyes.

"Look at the hidden weapon!"

Yun Chujiu said and threw something at Jin Maohou. Jin Maohou thought that Yun chujiu was throwing chili noodles this time and jumped to the side in fright.

Then, he heard the human girl giggle. "You idiot! I threw flour! You are even afraid of flour. It's really a small flour!"
