

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2674

Qi Ling had no choice but to put away the remnant souls.

Seeing this, Yun chujiu also put away the remnant souls and said with her hands on her waist, "Qi Ling, how is it? What other tricks do you have? Quickly let me go! or else, hmph, I'll have to build a door again!"

Qi ling counted with its fingers. It seemed that there was really nothing that could deal with this abnormal thing! Oh right, it was still poisonous! Poison this stupid girl to death!

Therefore, Yun Chujiu was teleported to the ninth floor and thrown into a bubbling poisonous spring.

Yun chujiu did not do anything, and she almost laughed at the guai Cao in her dantian!

Ever since the last incident, due to her guilty conscience, the guai Cao had tucked its tail between its legs to make grass. Now that the food was in front of her, she naturally could not afford to keep a low profile anymore. She excitedly urged Yun chujiu to drink the poisonous spring.

Yun chujiu knew that she could not beat Guai Cao, and she also wanted to anger the weapon spirit. Therefore, she took out a cup, filled it with water, and began to drink slowly.

"Weapon spirit, although you are a black-hearted person, you did a good job. I was thirsty, so you made me such sweet spring water. Thank you!"

Qi Ling sat on the ground in disbelief. This pervert couldn't even poison the poisonous spring to death?

No, impossible!

It must be because she drank less, so the poisonous spring hadn't taken effect yet. As long as she drank a little more, she would definitely be poisoned to death. Definitely!

Yun chujiu slowly drank a cup. Guai Cao was anxious. Why didn't she hurry up with the delicious food? What was she waiting for? !

Thus, the miserable Yun Chujiu once again lost control of her body. Like a little toad, she lay in the poisonous spring and began to fill her stomach with water.

At first, the weapon spirit was dancing with joy. Hahaha, that little girl must have been poisoned! That was why she lay in the poisonous spring!

But, why was the water level of the poisonous spring continuously dropping?

When the weapon spirit reacted, more than half of the poisonous spring had been drunk. It was so anxious that it could not hide anymore. It jumped out and shouted, "You, you, get out of there! That is my poisonous spring!"

Yun Chujiu, who had lost control of her body, curled her lips. It was easy to invite the gods, but difficult to send them away! Gou Weiba would not give up until he had drunk the poisonous spring!

When the weapon spirit saw that Yun Chujiu did not respond, it became anxious!

It rushed forward and tried to drag yun chujiu out of the poisonous spring. In fact, it could have moved Yun Chujiu to another layer. It was also worried about her.

Guai Cao's mind was filled with nothing but food. Now that the weapon spirit had actually stopped it from drinking the poisonous spring, it was not willing to let it go. It directly pushed the weapon spirit into the poisonous spring as well.

The miserable weapon spirit was actually poisoned by its own poisonous spring and fainted. Although it would not die, it would not wake up for a while.

Guai Cao threw the weapon spirit far away and continued to drink the poisonous spring.

Finally, he finished drinking the poisonous spring. Then, a Wisp of light blue mist rose up. It was the Mermaid Man!

“Gou Weiba! Hurry up and get back here!” Yun chujiu was extremely excited when she saw that it was the mermaid man. Last time, the mermaid man had disappeared without saying anything. This time, she had to get to the bottom of it.

Gou Weiba was very satisfied and happily handed over the control of his body, Yun chujiu quickly said, “Brother Merman, this is also a part of your soul, right? Where are the rest of your souls being held? I’ll think of a way to help you release them!”

“It’s...” the Merman’s face was ashen but he could not say anything important. It was obvious that someone had placed a restriction on him.
