

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2694

Yun chujia thought for a moment. Perhaps the interval between number 14's thoughts was quite long, so she decided to wait a little longer.

After a day, there was still no sound inside number 14's thoughts cave. It was just like an ordinary cave. There were no wind blades or lightning at all.

Damn it!

She was extremely unlucky!

She reckoned that number 14's thoughts cave was a defective product!

That's right, this number was unlucky. She had requested to go to No. 13 meditation cave at that time!

Now, what should she do?

This fellow rolled her eyes. If she told the truth, the higher-ups would definitely send people down to check it out. Who knows, they might even check out the other meditation caves. In that case, wouldn't she be exposed?

Therefore, it was better to stay still!

Therefore, this guy let the three in his dantian spit out lightning spiritual power. She would use it to cultivate.

Although the three were unwilling, they still agreed.

Soon, half a month passed. Yun Chujiu felt that haste makes waste. She should stop for a while, so this guy decided to refine pills!

In the outside world, she was afraid that the heaven-grade pills refined by the heaven and earth furnace would cause trouble, so she never refined them again. Guai Cao was especially edible, so there were not many heaven-grade pills left in her hands.

The meditation cave was just right to isolate the smell, and it should not be able to attract heavenly lightning. Of course, if it could attract heavenly lightning, it would be a pleasant surprise.

Therefore, this guy took out the heaven and earth furnace and began to refine pills.

Yun Chujiu's spiritual sense transmitted the sound of a baby babbling. It was the heaven and Earth Furnace's Qi Ling expressing its joy.

Using the heaven and Earth Furnace to refine pills was simply too easy. As long as the medicinal herbs were thrown inside, the Qi Ling would naturally help refine them. Moreover, the pills that came out were all heaven-grade pills.

Yun chujiu thought to herself, no wonder the gigolo had instructed her not to let anyone discover the heaven and Earth Heaven and earth furnace. If this was found out by others, they would definitely kill them and steal their treasures.

This fellow refined pills one furnace after another, completely unaware that the entire primordial chaos sect had already exploded!

The people of the primordial chaos sect had originally been living and cultivating according to schedule. However, they suddenly discovered that the spiritual Qi of the entire primordial chaos sect had begun to weaken.

How, How was this possible?

Everyone from Master Baili to the handyman in the kitchen were terrified. One had to know that the spiritual energy was the foundation of establishing a sect. If the primordial chaos sect lost its spiritual energy, then it would be on the verge of extermination!

Thus, everyone hurriedly searched for the reason.

Very quickly, everyone discovered something strange.

On the back mountain of Dubhe Peak, there was a visible cluster of spiritual energy circling above, and the spiritual energy of the primordial chaos sect was still continuously gathering there.

Master Baili and the Six Peak Masters tried to approach the cluster of spiritual energy. However, the power of the cluster of spiritual energy was extremely strong, and the edges were like wind blades. There was no way to approach it.

Something was definitely wrong. There must be something below that was attracting the spiritual energy. If they didn't figure it out, the future of the primordial chaos sect would be bleak.

Master Baili had no choice but to invite the four supreme elders of the primordial chaos sect.

These four supreme elders could be said to be the anchor of the primordial chaos sect. Unless the primordial chaos sect had an extremely important matter, they would never appear.

When the four supreme elders arrived at the back of the mountain, they immediately frowned. They had lived for so many years, but they had never seen such a strange situation. Could it be that there were heavenly treasures or immortal beasts and Divine Beasts Underground?

Or perhaps, there was some evil way to absorb spiritual power? Or demonic plants?

When everyone saw that the four supreme elders had no idea what to do, they immediately sank into a gloomy cloud..
