

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2706

Yun chujiu hurriedly sent a voice transmission talisman to Jin Zhi and then to di beiming, stating that she would go to the primordial murder sect to play for a few days so that they did not have to worry.

Jin Zhi replied very quickly. It was unknown whether di beiming did not see it or was too busy to leave, so he did not reply immediately.

After Yun Chujiu sent out the voice transmission talisman, she obediently hid in the corner. HMM, eat, eat, eat!

Although this guy had the juice of guai Cao to save his life, he still felt hungry for a long, long time in his heart, so naturally, it was more important to fill his stomach first.

Master Xiahou glanced at Yun chujiu with disdain. No wonder he was a handyman in the big kitchen. So he was a good-for-nothing! He thought back to when he was in the Sky Bearing Alliance. He felt that he was quite smart. How did he become a good-for-nothing after staying in the chaos origin sect for half a year?

The murderous origin sect was not too far from the chaos origin sect. In addition, Master Xiahou's flying spirit tool was quite powerful. Therefore, after four hours, the flying spirit tool arrived at the murderous origin sect.

Although Master Xiahou was the sect master of the murderous origin sect, he still had to walk to the front of the mountain gate.

Yun Chujiu looked at the mountain gate of the origin killing sect and almost burst out laughing. This was simply a copy of the mountain gate of the origin killing sect!

It looked quite similar, but it didn't have the ancient and powerful aura of the mountain gate of the origin killing sect. Of course, it didn't look too bad. After all, it was a super sect that had been around for tens of thousands of years. It still had some foundation.

It was possible that they didn't find the Stone Pi Xiu at the gate of the murderous Yuan sect, so they had placed two jade-eyed stone lions there. It looked quite normal.

Perhaps it was because Yun chujiu's disdain was too obvious, but the two jade-eyed lions actually spoke in human language. "Humph! A little girl that the Heavenly Dao doesn't allow actually dares to look down on us?"

"That's right, Little Xia Hou, you are not allowed to bring this smelly girl in!"

Master Xiahou was shocked and embarrassed. No matter who was at such an age, being called Little Xiahou by the two stone lions would be very awkward, alright?

However, he really couldn't say anything. After all, these two stone lions were much older than him.

"Since the Guardian Stone Beasts don't like you, then you should return to the primordial chaos sect! I will send someone to send you back," master Xiahou said with a stiff face.

Yun chujiu thought to herself, what a joke. They are already here, and they are going back just like that? Besides, if this news were to spread, how embarrassing would it be!

Thus, this fellow said with a smile, "Master sect leader, I reckon that these two stone lions have some misunderstandings about me. I will communicate with them at a close distance, and they will definitely change their views of me."

As Yun Chujiu said this, she secretly held Patriarch Hongyuan's ring in her hand, she walked to the stone lion on the east side and said, "What did you say just now? You Don't want me to go in? Did you not wake up just now, so what you said was nonsense?"

Master Xiahou almost laughed out of anger. Did This Yun chujiu think that this stone lion was easy to fool? If she angered them, she would not have a good ending.

Unexpectedly, that stone lion trembled twice, then, it said flatteringly, "Yes, yes, you're right. I wasn't awake just now and spouted nonsense! We warmly welcome you to our Shi Yuan sect. Welcome! Welcome! Warmly welcome!"

The other stone lion also said flatteringly, "Yes, yes, I wasn't awake just now. Welcome! Welcome! Warmly welcome!"

Master Xiahou:"..."

In broad daylight, did he see a Ghost?
