

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2707

Yun chujiu nodded her head in satisfaction. "Master, our Shi Yuan Sect's stone lion is quite cute!"

Only then did master Xiahou notice that Yun Chujiu had changed from calling him "Master xiahou" to "Master", and even "Our Shi Yuan sect", this little girl had changed so quickly. She was really a fence-sitter!

Master Xiahou entered the murderous origin sect under the warm welcome of the two stone lions. He felt that it was extremely ridiculous. Even he, as the sect master, had never received such treatment before! He did not expect that this little girl who had repaid her debt would receive such treatment. Wasn't this too much of a joke? !

The two stone lions at the door were probably too old and muddle-headed!

The Moment Master Xiahou entered the murderous origin sect., he said to his successor disciple Leng Kui, "Bring Yun Chujiu to the general affairs office and get someone to arrange for her to be a fireman in the big kitchen. Keep an eye on her. As long as her life is saved, it's fine. You Don't have to care about other things."

When Master Xiahou said this, he didn't carry Yun chujiu behind his back. It was obvious that he was telling Yun chujiu to stop.

Yun chujiu acted as if she didn't hear him and continued to look at Master Xiahou with a smile.

Master Xiahou snorted and was about to leave with a flick of his sleeve.

Unexpectedly, Yun Chujiu suddenly said with a smile, "Master, Please Wait a moment. Can you give me one of Your Voice Transmission Talismans? Master Baili even gave me one. You Can't be more stingy than him, right?"

How could master Xiahou's voice transmission talisman be given to just anyone? However, Yun Chujiu had pinpointed his weak spot, which was that he was always competing with Master Baili. Therefore, she snorted coldly, threw a voice transmission talisman to Yun Chujiu, and then left.

Yun Chujiu's eyes flashed. This was a life-saving talisman, so she had to keep it well.

Leng Kui was as obedient as a grandson in front of Master Xiahou. However, once Master Xiahou left.., he immediately sneered and said, "I didn't expect you to be so resourceful. You even got my master's Voice Transmission Talisman. I'm warning you, our murderous Yuan sect is not the Hunyuan sect. If you dare to do anything, I, Leng Kui, will not forgive you."

"Senior brother Leng, don't worry. I will be obedient and keep the fire burning in the kitchen. I won't cause any trouble,"Yun Chujiu said obediently.

Leng Kui snorted coldly when he saw this. He brought Yun Chujiu and rode his sword to the general affairs office on the Golden Peak.

The murderous Yuan sect was divided into five peaks: metal, wood, water, fire, and earth. The Golden Peak was the main peak. The general affairs office and the Law Enforcement Office were all located on the Golden Peak.

Yun chujiu could finally see that the murderous Yuan sect was a completely fake version of the Hunyuan sect. They were basically the same.

After the two of them arrived at the general affairs office, the General Affairs office was guarded by a steward surnamed Liu. When he saw Leng Kui, he was extremely flattering.

Yun chujiu cursed in her heart. It seemed that this Leng Kui was quite popular in the murderous Yuan sect. However, it was also true. As the successor disciple of the sect master, he might become the sect master in the future. Naturally, he would be very popular.

Leng kui said coldly, "This Yun Chujiu is from the Hunyuan sect. Because of some matters, she will take turns to stay in each sect for three months in the future. You can arrange for her to be a busboy in the Big Kitchen!"

After Leng Kui finished speaking, he did not bother with manager Liu's questions and directly left.

Manager Liu was completely dumbfounded. What the hell? This little girl will be taking turns to stay in the two sects in the future? She even brought this to play? Wasn't she afraid that she would leak some sect's secrets?
