

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 272

The disciples of the Spirit Radiance Sect quickly discovered the odd Yun Chujiu flying in the sky!

“Holy sh*t! What the hell is flying in the sky?”

“Ah, Yun Chujiu! It's that little fire girl, Yun Chujiu!”

“Why do I feel that she's not quite the same as before?! Ah, she's fairer! A lot fairer!”

“Oh my god, how did she suddenly go from a useless person who can't cultivate to a fourth level Spirit Enhancement cultivator?”

“That's not right. Didn't they say that only spirit cultivators can ride swords? How did she manage to do that? F*ck! Is that a chopping board under her feet? Has the chopping board in the Middle Peak's kitchen become a spirit?”

Yun Chujiu was very satisfied to see the dumbfounded expressions on everyone's faces. She directed the rolling pin to fly around the entire Spirit radiance Sect. She even went to the Spirit Beast Garden on the West Peak on purpose.

“Hey old livestock friends! Did you guys cultivate diligently?” Yun Chujiu circled the Mighty Elephant's nest a few times, then waved her hands.

The Mighty Elephants recognized Yun Chujiu. When they saw that it was Yun Chujiu who they had not seen them for a few days, who not only had spirit energy but was also able to control objects and fly, they were all greatly encouraged!

Even a little girl like her was able to turn things around. It looked like the little girl was right. They had to be prepared beasts.

After Yun Chujiu and a Mighty Elephants established a relationship, she went out and showed off for a while before flying back to the dormitory.

“My dear Prince Charming, are you feeling better? Did you miss me?” Yun Chujiu jumped to the side of the bed and touched Di Beiming’s forehead.

Perhaps it was because of her blood, but Di Beiming’s fever had subsided and he was in a better state.

“Where did you go to be so cocky?” Di Beiming raised his eyebrows.

“Tsk! Prince Charming, how can you say that? What do you mean by cocky? I’m just proud, okay? It’s not easy for me to turn over a new leaf. Naturally, I have to announce it to the world! Hehe!” Yun Chujiu felt that she was quite talented.

The corner of Di Beiming’s eyes twitched slightly. You said a lot of things, but in conclusion, you’re still cocky!

Yun Chujiu tugged at the corner of her clothes shyly. “My idol, I’m sorry! I shouldn’t have let you, a wounded man, sleep on the ground yesterday. I didn’t even cover you with a blanket! As the saying goes, if you admit your mistakes, then you’re a good person. I promise I won’t mistreat you anymore!”

Di Beiming saw that Yun Chujiu looked a little shy, so he could not help but think of last night’s intimacy. His face also turned slightly red, and he coughed dryly. “It’s okay! I’m fine now.”

Seeing that Di Beiming was so easy to talk to, Yun Chujiu immediately wanted to do something to compensate him, so she said, "Prince Charming, you've been lying on the bed all this time. Are you bored? I'll take you outside to breathe some fresh air."

Yun Chujiu did not wait for Di Beiming's approval. She helped Di Beiming put on his coat and carried him out of the house.

"An Feng, hurry up and get a reclining chair over. His Highness wants to bask in the sun."

An Feng saw his esteemed self being carried out effortlessly by Yun Chujiu. The corners of his eyes twitched slightly. This ninth miss was really fierce. It seemed that His Esteemed Self would be at her mercy in the future!

Yun Chujiu placed Di Beiming on the reclining chair and said in a virtuous manner, "Prince Charming, if you don't exercise, your muscles will atrophy. Let me massage you!"

Di Beiming felt warm in his heart. Although the black thing was a little out of tune, she was still sincere to him! Yes, he was very pleased!

Yun Chujiu rubbed her hands and laughed dryly, "Prince Charming, let's settle the scores. My fee is still the same as before. I'll charge you two thousand Spirit Stones for fifteen minutes. If you get the fifteen minutes, I'll give you a twenty percent discount!"

Di Beiming was speechless.
