

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2721

The entire murderous origin sect was in an uproar!

The days of cultivation were long and boring, and they finally had a fun time. Moreover, there was money to be made, so naturally, they all flocked to it.

When they arrived at the competition stage, they asked around. The first match after the start of the bet was between He Sheng of the third layer of the spiritual void tier in the big kitchen and Yun Chujiu of the sixth layer of the rune spirit tier.

Everyone was so angry that they were amused!

"I say, are you guys crazy? ! Aren't you obviously taking our bonuses? who would be stupid enough to bet that Yun Chujiu would win?"

"That's right! Even a fool knows that he sheng would definitely win! If we bet, we wouldn't make any money even if we won. We would even have to give you a 1% bonus on the competition stage. You guys are too mean!"

The disciple on duty sneered and said, "You guys are really interesting. Did We Force you to bet on the stage? If you guys are willing to bet, then do it. Even if you don't bet, don't slander us! Besides, why isn't anyone betting on Yun Chujiu winning? Open your eyes and look at the top of the stage. There are already people betting on Yun Chujiu winning, and they're betting ten million high-grade spirit stones!"

Only then did the crowd notice that there was a shadow stone beside the competition stage, and on it was a real-time display of the bets placed by both sides. Under Yun Chujiu's name was a display of ten million high-grade spirit stones, while under He Sheng's name was a display of fifty thousand high-grade spirit stones.

The crowd was stunned at first, and then they scrambled to place their bets. What a joke, what's the difference between this and giving away money for free? ! The earlier you buy, the earlier you earn! Even if a thousand people split the money, each of them could still get ten thousand spirit stones! Where could they find such a good deal!

As the scene was too lively, elder Qi personally came out to maintain order. The chubby face was smiling like a flower. The Little Lass was right. Human Nature was greedy. In the face of temptation, even basic judgment was lost.

The number under He Sheng's name slowly rose. Yun Chujiu's side was still unmoving at ten million. Everyone had already expected this. After all, no one was stupid, right? If it was placed on Yun Chujiu, then it was because she had money to burn.

An hour before the competition, he Sheng's bet had already soared to 220 million upper-grade spirit stones, while Yun Chujiu's side was still unmoving at ten million.

The competition stage was completely surrounded, and all of them were disciples who had placed their bets. This was related to how much money they could win, so they naturally had to watch it with their own eyes.

Not only had he sheng come early, but he had also placed a bet of 200,000 spirit stones on himself. There was a limit to what a handyman like him could bring out, and this was already close to half of his fortune.

He sheng spouted nonsense on the competition stage, saying that Yun Chujiu would definitely lose today, and that everyone would make a fortune together.

Just as he Sheng was spouting nonsense, Yun chujiu hopped over.

Everyone thought that Yun Chujiu would step onto the stage, but they didn't expect her to actually walk up to the betting table and say loudly, "I'll bet two million upper-grade spirit stones, I'll bet on myself to win!"

Everyone immediately exploded!

"Heavens, this Yun chujiu is simply crazy!"! Where did she get her confidence from? How could a trash like her win against He Sheng with such a small body? She might not even be able to save her own life in the end, but she actually bet on herself to win. She's really crazy!"

"I heard that this Yun chujiu stayed in our killing Yuan sect for three months, then stayed in the Chaos Yuan sect for another three months, and so on." "I guess she thought that the higher-ups would help her, right?" "But, I heard the rumors. The sect leader said that as long as we don't kill her, the rest is up to us."

"What's the point of saying those useless things? ! Hurry up and increase the stakes!"

"Right, right. The more you bet, the more you'll get. I'll add another 100,000!"
