

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2734

A certain Jiu was trying her best to avoid the wind blades. After feeling the vibration of the sound transmission talisman, she quickly raised her spiritual energy shield and sent her spiritual sense into the sound transmission talisman.

Yun Chujiu's heart immediately turned cold when she heard Master Xiahou's words!

If it was just a small situation, it would be impossible to find Master Xiahou. Moreover, from the tone of Old Man Xiahou, he sounded guilty. What exactly happened?

"Master, don't mention it! Ever since I entered, I have been attacked. Are you sure that I entered the No. 1 self-reflection cave?"

"Well, Yun Chujiu, there seems to be a problem with the teleportation array, so you are currently in the No. 11 self-reflection cave. Also, also, your time limit has somehow become 500 years. However, don't worry, we are thinking of a way. We will definitely be able to save you."

A certain jiu almost fainted when she heard Master Xiahou's words!

Five hundred years?

Was he treating her like a monkey? Monkey Sun had been suppressed for five hundred years because he caused a ruckus in the heavenly court. She was very innocent, okay? She was here to look for little flame. Was there a need to lock her up for five hundred years? If she was trapped here for five hundred years, wouldn't the pretty boy be a bachelor for five hundred years?

This fellow wanted to give master Xiahou a good scolding, but this fellow was very smart. Now that he had a request, it was better to tuck his tail between his legs.

Thus, this fellow said pitifully, "Master Master, I believe in You! However, my spiritual power is too weak, so I will try my best to hold on until you guys save me!"

If Yun chujiu vented her anger, master Xiahou would feel better. He didn't expect the little girl to not make a fuss, which made him feel even more guilty.

Everyone was thinking of a solution outside. Let's not talk about unlucky jiu for now.

The spiritual power attack finally stopped temporarily. The unlucky child sat on the ground and panted heavily.

The teleportation array would not have problems for no reason. It was either the array itself or man-made.

However, the teleportation array was formed by several people at the same time, so it should be difficult to tamper with it. Then, the problem should be the array. Could it be that the Qi Ling had already been born?

Yun chujiu also felt that it was unlikely. After all, the Reflection Cave of the primordial chaos sect was much older than this self-reflection cave. Even the reflection cave did not give birth to a Qi ling, so it was even more impossible for it to give birth to a Qi ling.

Could it be that the formation was broken?

Yun chujiu thought of her purpose for coming here again and hurriedly contacted the little flame. Although the little flame had yet to recognize its master, it might have stayed in Yun Chujiu's body for a long time. If she were to carefully sense it.., she could sense a faint connection.

The little flame's cheerful mood was transmitted through her spiritual sense. Yun chujiu could not help but curse secretly. It was eating happily, but she was unlucky!

A thought flashed through Yun Chujiu's mind. She could not help but curse herself for being an idiot! Even if the little flame wanted to eat the thousand-year-old fire marrow, it would not come to the self-reflection cave. It should go to the place where the thousand-year-old fire marrow was buried. Moreover, the little flame might not be able to enter the self-reflection cave.

She did not think it through clearly and turned into a demon to bring herself in. She was really out of her mind!

This fellow did not waste the name of the self-reflection cave. After a moment of self-reflection, he looked around and prepared to save himself.

Yun chujiu knew that there was an array formation on the side wall, so after she set up the spiritual energy barrier, she tentatively chopped down with the large kitchen knife. Sure enough, it was blocked by an invisible barrier, so the large kitchen knife was obviously not going to work.

This guy's eyes rolled around. Barrier?

What was the best way to break the barrier? Talisman!

Coincidentally, she had a lot of talismans! Then what was she waiting for? Blow It Up!
