

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2758

Yun Chujiu left the courtyard in a huff. Damn it, I've Had Enough!

They were all men trying to make their girlfriends happy, but she had to coax that arrogant fool who was always insulting the heavens and the earth. She would lose her face every few days and serve whoever she wanted. Anyway, she wouldn't serve anyone anymore!

This fellow walked for a while in a huff before he remembered. Damn it, that was my courtyard. If he wanted to leave, he should have told the gigolo to leave. He was really mad!

However, since he had come out, there was no reason for him to go back. It was also good to find someone to vent his anger on. He should go and cheat!

Therefore, this fellow went to the big kitchen with a gloomy face.

Fatty Wang quickly went up to her and asked, "Junior Sister Yun, why are you back?"

"Why? This big kitchen is your territory. Can't I Come?"

Fatty Wang almost vomited blood. He could only say embarrassedly, "I can come, I can come. You can come as you please."

Yun chujiu walked to the side of her personal stove and sat on the small horse. She stared at the crowd with a gloomy face.

The atmosphere in the big kitchen suddenly dropped to the freezing point. Everyone was careful, afraid to provoke this female fiend.

The saddest one was the handyman who cut the vegetables. He didn't dare to make too much noise, so he could only cut the vegetables gently bit by bit. It was simply too torturous!

After two hours of hard work, all the dishes were ready.

Yun chujia put the dishes into her storage ring and then left the big kitchen.

When the people in the big kitchen saw that the bad guy had finally left, they felt as if they had survived a disaster. Damn, the atmosphere in the room just now was suffocating, okay?

It was really strange. She was clearly a little girl at the sixth layer of the spiritual mystery realm, why did it make people feel scared from the bottom of their hearts?

Yun chujia walked out of the big kitchen and was at a loss. Where was she going?

She had already made a promise to Leng Kui that she would not run around anymore. If she were to go wandering around, would that count as not keeping her word?

This guy thought for a moment. Behind the big kitchen was the back mountain of Jin Feng, so there should not be any trouble there.

Therefore, this guy went to the back mountain of Jin Feng with a gloomy face and casually broke a branch. Then, he found a big rock and sat down. He took the branch and whipped it hard on the ground:

"You Little Gigolo! I'll whip you! I'll whip you to death!"

"Arrogant! Shameless!"

“Do you think I care about you? ! Pah! Narcissist!”

..

How could that fragile little branch withstand this guy’s whipping? It broke after a few whips. This guy was so angry that he threw the remaining half of his hand away. “What kind of lousy thing is this? Even you are bullying me!”

“Squeak Squeak!”

The twig that Yun chujiu casually threw had hit some demon beast. Only a miserable cry could be heard. Yun chujiu turned her head and saw a gray shadow running into the depths of the forest.

This fellow was feeling extremely bored and quickly got up to chase after it.

The demon beasts that lived in the back mountain were mostly low-level demon beasts. Therefore, Yun Chujiu did not spend much effort to chase after it. It turned out to be a long-eared wind-blade rabbit.

When the long-eared wind-blade rabbit saw Yun chujiu chasing after it, it ran as fast as it could and went into a cave, disappearing without a trace.

Yun chujiu suddenly felt dispirited. So it was such a small thing. She was tired of eating rabbit meat. Forget it, she could spare it with kindness.

Thinking of this, Yun Chujiu was about to turn around and leave. Suddenly, she narrowed her eyes and took a few steps forward. There seemed to be something wrong with this rabbit hole.

A normal rabbit hole was only the size of a rabbit's body. This was to prevent predators from entering. However, this rabbit hole was a little too big. No matter how she looked at it, it did not look like a rabbit hole.
