

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2759

Yun chujju curiously walked to the side of the cave and observed it. The wild grass around the cave did not look different from the wild grass beside it, which meant that the cave should have existed a long time ago.

Could it be that this cave was dug by another large-scale demon beast and then occupied by this long-eared wind-blade rabbit?

Yun Chujju felt that this explanation was still reasonable, so she stood up and prepared to leave.

At this moment, she heard the long-eared wind-blade Rabbit's miserable cry from the depths of the cave. It was so shrill, as if it had encountered something terrible.

Yun chujju could not help but laugh. Since you had burrowed into the other person's Cave, you naturally took the initiative to deliver yourself to the other person as a snack. What's the use of shouting now? !

Yun chujju took a few steps forward. After thinking for a while, she turned back and muttered, "Forget it, I'll show mercy once. I hope it's not too late!"

The reason why this guy was so kind was because he felt that she was like this rabbit. He clearly knew that the pretty boy was an arrogant maniac, but he still wanted to get close to her. wasn't he just looking for trouble? !

It could only be said that it was easy for people who had fallen out of love to connect the dots. They could even connect the dots when they saw a rabbit.

This guy took a few steps back. He faced the entrance of the cave and shot out several bolts of lightning. he shouted, "Hey! Listen to me, the demonic beast inside! That Rabbit is my pet. If you dare to eat it, I'll Roast You!"

It was unknown whether it was because the soil in the back mountain was too loose or Yun Chujiu's lightning was too powerful. After a few bolts of lightning from this fellow, a large area around the cave collapsed. Curious Jiu also fell down miserably.

That poor long-eared wind-blade rabbit was currently being swallowed by a bloodthirsty giant python. Only a pair of long rabbit ears were still exposed.

Yun chujiu shot several bolts of lightning at the seven inches of the giant bloodthirsty Python. Even though this fellow was a weakling in front of Master Xiahou and the others, in front of these low-level demon beasts, he was simply a formidable fiend.

The giant bloodthirsty Python was only a level 20 demon beast. How could it withstand her attack? Its body was in pain. It opened its mouth and spat out the poor long-eared wind-blade rabbit.

Yun chujiu did not stop until the giant bloodthirsty Python was dead.

Although the miserable long-eared wind-blade rabbit did not die, it was timid to begin with. Now, it was so scared that it was trembling.

"Alright, I won't kill you. Run for your life!"

When the long-eared wind-blade rabbit heard Yun Chujiu's words, it stood up and ran into the depths of the cave in a panic.

Yun chujiu was so angry that she laughed. This is really a stupid rabbit. Why Don't you run out of the cave instead!

Yun Chujiu was also bored and followed the rabbit into the cave.

The long-eared wind-blade rabbit was also scared out of its mind. When it saw that Yun Chujiu had actually followed it, it used its four claws to dig at the wall of the cave desperately. It was obvious that it was planning to dig a hole to escape.

Yun chujiu hugged her shoulders and watched from the side. How could there be such a stupid rabbit?

This fellow was also quite wicked. It took out a small pony from its storage ring and sat on it to watch the rabbit dig a hole.

The long-eared wind-blade rabbit felt that it was really unlucky!

It was perfectly fine eating grass, but it was smashed by this Fiend's Branch! Let's dig a hole, and we even met a bloodthirsty Python! Now, the Evil Star was still eyeing it from the side, what was she going to do?

The long-eared wind-blade rabbit did not believe that Yun chujiu would not kill it. If she did not want to kill it, why did she not leave? Why was she staring at it? She must have planned to wait until it was exhausted from digging the hole before eating it, bad silver!
