

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2766

A certain Jiu had caused a certain jiu to become a demon herself, causing a certain jiu to be enlightened. What tolerance? What tolerance? To hell with all that! She could not give Yun chujiu too much face when she was such a snobbish person.

Hence, a certain jiu once again became a lackey. The regret in her heart was like a torrential river, she weakly asked di beiming, "Prince Charming, about that, can you forget everything that happened today and let's start all over again? I will definitely not be a demon this time. Let me enjoy the feeling of being served again!"

Di beiming:"..."could it be said that he wanted to get as far away as possible?

The next night, di beiming left the origin killing sect. Of course, before he left, he had to give some instructions. A certain jiu could already memorize the eight character mantra!

Cultivate properly and don't cause trouble!

Seriously, how could such an obedient and good child like her cause trouble? !

After di beiming left, a certain jiu stayed quiet for a few days. It was not that this fellow kept his promise, but she was afraid that water mountain would suspect her when they found out that the Green Jade Lotus Root was lost.

On this day, Yun Chujiu woke up naturally and wandered into the kitchen.

As soon as she entered the kitchen, she heard the servants discussing, "Did you hear? Something Big Happened! More than half of the green jade lotus root from water mountain was lost! I heard that Water Mountain's Peak Master Mo is going crazy with anger!"

“Is that true? Isn’t the green jade root being guarded by someone? Furthermore, there are layers of formations around it. How could anyone steal it?”

“Who says so? ! I heard that there aren’t any signs of the formations being broken. Furthermore, the disciples on patrol insisted that nothing abnormal had happened. What a Ghost!”

..

A certain Jiu was secretly happy. That ghost was her! How could she catch her?

This guy was so shameless that he even went up to those people and asked them all kinds of questions, looking like he was gossiping. 1

Everyone exchanged a look. Fortunately, this troublemaker had been grounded in their own courtyard recently, or else she might have done it!

At this moment, Master Xiahou and the others were standing beside the lotus pond on the water mountain, frowning.

Recently, for some unknown reason, an unbelievable thing happened every now and then. How did this Green Jade Lotus suddenly disappear?

Mountain Master Ren of the wood peak said, “Could it be Yun chujiu again?”

Master Xiahou shook his head, “When I heard the news, I thought it was her. But after investigation, that little girl has been staying in the dormitory these days and hasn’t been to the Water Mountain. So, this matter should have nothing to do with her.”

Water Mountain's mountain master mo nodded his head, "That's right, I've asked the disciples in the clan. Yun chujiu hasn't been to water mountain these days, so she didn't do it."

Fire Mountain's Mountain Master Zhao couldn't help but laugh, "You guys are too paranoid. Although that little girl likes to cause trouble, this lotus pond has layers of protection and an array. Even if she really went to water mountain, she wouldn't be able to steal it!" "Let's find another reason."

Everyone thought about it. They had been traumatized by that little girl. The Green Jade Lotus had nothing to do with her.

En, what they didn't know was that a certain jiu, who had nothing to do with the Green Jade Lotus, had already returned to her dorm and was nibbling on a green jade lotus root!

Water Mountain had investigated for half a month, but they still couldn't find any clues. Thus, the Green Jade Lotus root incident became a big unsolved case in the murderous Yuan sect.

Yun Chujiu felt that the limelight had passed, so she started to show up again.
