

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2792

Before Shangguan Hao could say anything., an Linchuan laughed out loud. "Junior sister Jiu, it seems like you don't know anything about sword cultivation!"! Sword cultivators can only comprehend sword intent after cultivating sword qi. Besides, sword intent isn't like cabbages. Not every sword cultivator can comprehend sword intent."

"That might not be the case. There are also those who can comprehend sword intent before cultivating sword Qi."Yun Chujiu's eyes flashed as she said.

An Linchuan smiled and did not argue with Yun Chujiu. He felt that junior sister Jiu might have been struck dumb by the arrows just now, so she spoke nonsense.

An Linchuan did not mention it again, and Yun Chujiu did not continue. She thought that she could try her chicken slaughtering swordsmanship later! Although this swordsmanship did not have any offensive ability, it should not be a problem to use sword intent to block the arrows.

An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao were afraid that Yun Chujiu would get angry, so they avoided this topic and started chatting.

Of course, at the beginning, it was the three of them who talked, but in the end, it was a certain Jiu who gave the speech alone.

Anyway, the things that this guy had experienced were all strange and strange. One of them was enough to talk for a long time. In addition, she talked vividly, so an Linchuan and Shangguan Hao listened with great interest.

The people in the meeting hall couldn't hear what they were saying. In any case, they could only see Yun chujiu talking in high spirits, while the two silly boys listened attentively.

Mountain master an and mountain master shen simply couldn't bear to look at her. They decided that after an Linchuan and the others came out, they would definitely cut off their interaction with that bad news bag. Otherwise, if they were sold, they would have to help count the money!

However, that little girl was really heartless. wasn't she worried that the mission wouldn't be completed?

Elder Jing snorted coldly. "I think she has completely given up. If you don't believe me, look at the next round of the mission. She will definitely use her spiritual energy barrier to protect herself."

Although mountain master he wasn't too confident in his heart., he still said stubbornly, "Tch! I think that the little girl must have thought of a good idea. If you don't believe me, Let's bet! I bet 100,000 high-grade spiritual stones. I bet that the little girl will definitely complete the mission this time. Do you dare to Bet?"

Elder Jing glanced at him with disdain. "Let's bet then. You're going to lose for sure!"

These people were also bored to death, so they began to place their bets one after another. The vast majority of them placed their bets on elder Jing's side. Only Mountain Master Zhuo weakly expressed his support for mountain master he.

Mountain master he grinned and said, "Brother Zhuo has good eyesight. We're going to win for sure! That little girl can even break out of the Asura prison. Why would she be afraid of those broken arrows? Tsk!"

Mountain Masster Zhuo thought that he didn't have much confidence in himself. However, he knew that that little girl was someone who would seek revenge for the smallest grievance. No matter what, this would show her attitude. When she came out, it would also be a show of Merit.

Master Baili looked at everyone speechlessly. Of course, he wouldn't get involved. However, in his heart, he felt that mountain master he was bound to lose. Although that little girl had a belly full of bad water, these arrows weren't something that bad water could deal with.

While everyone was making a racket, the tranquil heart cave had already begun to prompt for the start of the second calming heart mission.

An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao were both dumbfounded when they saw that the little girl took out a large kitchen knife from her storage ring and made a strange pose. Then, she shouted, "The first style of killing chickens!"

Snap!

An Linchuan sat down on the ground. It was over. Junior Sister Jiu had gone mad!

Shangguan Hao was slightly stronger than him. He staggered and managed to stabilize himself. He thought to himself, junior sister Jiu's words just now were quite normal. How did she suddenly go mad?

Although the people in the meeting hall didn't hear Yun chujiu's "First move of killing chickens", everyone still saw Yun Chujiu's weird posture.

Mountain master an said disdainfully, "Could that little girl have gone crazy? Mountain master he, Mountain Masster Zhuo, looks like your spirit stones are going to be lost."
