

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2799

Yun Chujiu had scolded the people behind the scenes a few hundred times, but it wasn't a certain Jiu's character to just obediently submit. There must be a way. Let Her think about it.

As she thought about it, her eyes lit up. She couldn't move, but she could command the large kitchen knife to move!

Thus, this guy commanded the large kitchen knife to start. Yes, to cut the bridge.

Everyone in the meeting hall was dumbfounded. This wasn't right! If she was in an illusion, why would she have a large kitchen knife? And that large kitchen knife was still cutting the bridge?

Mountain master he was stunned at first, then he stomped his feet and scolded, "Old Jing, you're too unethical! It turns out that the little girl didn't fall into an illusion at all. You used a confinement formation. You're Too Wicked!"

Elder Jing's face turned red. "Humph!"! This was because that little girl wasn't afraid of the pressure, so it made it a little more difficult for her. What are you shouting for? ! Besides, I only confined her body, not her spiritual power. Didn't she break the confinement formation already?"

Mountain master he looked up. Sure enough, Yun Chujiu regained her freedom after a few cuts with the big kitchen knife. At this time, she had already jumped to the middle of the bridge. Apparently, she had really fallen into the illusion this time.

The illusion that Yun Chujiu had fallen into this time was not as interesting as the previous one. It was nothing more than a bunch of demonic beasts surrounding her. Yun chujiu moved her spiritual sense and had already left the illusion.

This fellow felt that since the person behind her had used the confinement formation to deal with her, there was nothing to hide. Thus, he directly jumped to the end of the stone bridge.

However, after this incident, Yun Chujiu had some thoughts.

The confinement array just now only confined her body. If even her spiritual power was confined, then she wouldn't be able to release the big kitchen knife.

No, I must get a knife sheath after I go out this time and carry the big kitchen knife with me. I wanted to do that last time, but I forgot about it later.

Also, I can't always count on the big kitchen knife. Her body was confined and her spiritual power was confined. But since her mind was clear, then her spiritual sense should be able to move. If only her spiritual sense could attack! In that case, no matter what situation she encountered, she would have this trump card to be invincible.

This fellow felt that the remnant souls she encountered before were equivalent to using spiritual sense to attack? Since they could do it, why couldn't she?

The more she thought about it, the more excited she became. She made up her mind to practice spiritual sense attack after she left the meditation cave. When she succeeded, she would definitely be awesome!

The more she thought about it, the more beautiful she became. Her face was practically smiling like a flower!

Xiao Heinia, who was inside the spirit beast pouch, could not take it anymore, he reminded her, "Master, it's too early for you to be happy! Even if it's a remnant soul, it's still formed by countless spiritual senses. What you can send out is just a small strand of spiritual sense. What kind of offensive power can it have?"

"Moreover, once the spiritual sense you sent out is damaged, your spiritual sense will be damaged. It's simply not worth the loss! I advise you to put this idea out of your mind as soon as possible!"

"Didn't I use my spiritual sense to attack those monsters in the Tianluo Arcane realm before? Not only me, but other students have also succeeded. Why Can't I?"

Xiao Heinia said with disdain, "Master, that's because those monsters are transformed from the spiritual sense of big monsters. That's why your spiritual sense attack is effective. If you want to use your spiritual sense to attack a real body, that's impossible."

Yun chujia said unwillingly, "Why not? The ancient books say that there are people who can save the world with one thought and destroy the world with one thought! Obviously, spiritual sense can be trained to be very powerful."

Xiao Heiniaoy rolled his eyes, "Master, they are talking about gods! Gods, do you know? Even gods can tear through the void, of course their spiritual sense can be very abnormal. You are just a weak chicken, don't daydream!"
