

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2802

Two hours later, the fourth meditation task in the Cave of Tranquility was activated again.

An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao had lost hope in Yun Chujiu, so they sat cross-legged on the ground and began to meditate.

“Please answer the content of the 237th Maxim.”

“If you are cautious, you will be at ease. If you are respectful, you will be strong...”

“Please answer the content of the 197th Maxim.”

“If you follow it, what is your crime...”

“Please answer the content of the 365th Maxim.”

“A gentleman is virtuous, but if you look foolish...”

“Mission passed.”

An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao opened their eyes in surprise. They were both correct? Did junior sister Jiu really have dog, Shit, and luck? Did she know how to do all the random checks?

Yun chujiu turned around and smiled smugly. “How was it? I told you that my luck has always been good...”

Yun Chujiu’s words came to an abrupt end because she realized that the cave of Tranquility was beginning to tremble violently. What was going on?

An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao were also shocked. Why was the cave of Tranquility Trembling all of a sudden?

Almost at the same time, thousands of miles around the primordial chaos sect began to tremble. Master Baili, who was in the meeting hall, shouted, “Oh no! The Earth Dragon has turned over! Quick! Quickly let me ride my sword into the air to avoid being hurt by the Earth Qi!”

The people in the meeting hall couldn't care less about the bet anymore. They quickly informed their disciples to ride their swords into the air..

The ground began to tremble violently. The demonic beasts at the back of the mountain let out terrified roars. The trees and houses began to collapse. Cracks began to appear on the ground, and Earth Qi began to jump out.

The people in the air watched with fear and trepidation. Many of them had never seen the Earth Dragon turn over. They had only heard about it from others. They thought that it was a little exaggerated, but they didn't expect it to be so terrifying.

Master Baili heaved a sigh of relief in his heart. Although the Earth Dragon turn over this time had Earth Qi gushing out, it wasn't too serious and should be over soon.

At this moment, mountain master an cried out, "Linchuan! Linchuan and the others are still inside Jingxin Cave!"

Only then did mountain master Shen remember that his precious disciple Shangguan Hao was still inside Jingxin Cave.

Everyone still had a sliver of hope in their hearts. Perhaps the disciples of the Tranquil Heart Cave had released the three of them when they were retreating. However, when they asked, those disciples were in a hurry to escape, so they didn't have the time to care about the three people inside the cave, therefore, those three people were still inside the tranquil heart cave.

And the worst thing was that there was already a bottomless crack in the tranquil heart cave, and Earth Qi was constantly gushing out. Not to mention Yun Chujia and the other two, even if master Baili encountered such a situation, there was no chance of survival.

Mountain master An and mountain master Shen almost fell off the treasured sword. It was over. Lin Chuan and the others were definitely dead. If they had known this would happen, they would have gotten someone to release them first, and then arrange for the other disciples.

The two wanted to go down to check, but they were stopped by the crowd. Earth Qi was gushing out from below, and there was only one result if they went down, and that was death!

Mountain master he sighed. He did not expect that the crowd would be so excited to make a bet just a moment ago, and that it would be life and death in the next moment. Life was truly unpredictable. It was a pity that three good children lost their lives just like that.

Of course, the one who blamed himself the most was elder Jing. He was in charge of Calming Heart Cave, and the disciples guarding it were all under his management. If they made a mistake, he would naturally bear the blame.

After a few hours, everything returned to normal.

The chaos origin sect could be described as a complete mess. Apart from some of the main halls, 90% of the houses had collapsed, and the original Calming Heart Cave had also collapsed into ruins.

The huge crack that cut through the Calming Heart Cave had already closed up, as if nothing had happened. However, Yun Chujiu and the other two were nowhere to be found..
