

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2804

When the three of them thought that their lives were over, they did not expect the big turtle to not eat them. Instead, it lay there motionlessly.

Later, when the big turtle went out to look for food, the three of them realized that the big turtle was hatching an egg.

The three of them speculated that it might have felt that their tender skin and flesh were more nutritious and was prepared to save them for the little turtle to eat.

The three of them were puzzled. They were clearly in the cave of Tranquility, so how did they become the Little Bastard's reserve rations?

The three of them could only move their heads left and right, so they could only discover that they seemed to be in a cave. As for where this place was, they had no idea at all.

The three of them had seen the breed of the big bastard in the ancient records. It was a level 47 savage dragon-headed turtle, which was almost equivalent to the ninth layer of the ethereal space realm.

Not to mention that the three of them were now imprisoned, even if they were not imprisoned, there was no chance of survival if they encountered such a perverted Demon Beast.

“Sigh, Let’s pray that the little bastard won’t hatch in a short time. That way, we can live for a few more days.” Yun chujiu said with a bitter face. She had thought of many possibilities, but she did not expect that she would feed it to the bastard in the end!

Unfortunately, her big kitchen knife was still in her storage ring. Now, she could only use guai Cao. Guai Cao could attract demon beasts, but it could only make the three of them die faster. How could she escape?

At this moment, crack, crack, the crack on the egg grew bigger. It seemed that it was going to hatch soon.

Yun chujiu and the other two looked terrified. When it hatched, it would be the day they died. Could it be that they could only feed it to the bastard?

Yun chujiu gritted her teeth. There was no other way now. It seemed that she could only try to establish a spiritual connection with it. Although she could not establish a temporary contract without spiritual power, what if she could fool it? Every day that she could live was another day.

Therefore, Yun Chujiu sent out a wisp of spiritual sense to envelop the giant egg. When the little bastard had just broken out of its shell, Yun Chujiu’s spiritual sense entered the little bastard’s spiritual sense, preparing to establish a spiritual connection with it.

Originally, Yun Chujiu was already prepared for failure. She did not expect the process to be unexpectedly smooth. It was possible that the little bastard had just broken out of its shell and its spiritual sense was still very weak, so Yun Chujiu succeeded in one strike.

“Father!”

A soft voice came from Yun Chujiu’s spiritual sense. Yun Chujiu’s head buzzed and she almost fainted! ! What the hell is a father? !

That little bastard obviously only knew how to say this. He kept calling for his father and even crawled to Yun Chujiu’s side and gently nudged Yun Chujiu’s head with his head.

“Damn it! Stop nudging me! If you continue, my neck will be broken! Quickly pull your father out with your claws!” This bastard was already incoherent. No matter what, he had to regain his freedom first.

Although that little bastard had just been born, it was still a high-level demonic beast after all. Therefore, with just a few claws, it was able to pull Yun chujiu out.

Yun chujiu discovered that once she had gotten out of the sand on the ground, not only could she move, but her spiritual power had also recovered. She did not know whether it was because of the sand, or if there was something underneath, or if it was because of that little bastard.

Yun chujie quickly commanded the little bastard to pull an Linchuan and the other two out. Both of them were dumbfounded. How could that Little Bastard listen to Junior Sister Jie?

Just as the little bastard pulled an Linchuan and the other two out, the big bastard came back..
