

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2818

Yun Chujiu was puzzled. If the situation here was strange, there was no reason for the big bastard not to warn them. Perhaps they were overthinking things?

The three of them raised their vigilance and continued to swim forward carefully.

Suddenly, an Linchuan cried out in surprise. Yun chujiu turned her head and saw a foot as thick as a bucket sticking out from under the sand at the bottom of the sea, pulling an linchuan down.

An Linchuan tried his best to cut the foot with the sword in his hand, but he only made a few shallow marks.

Shangguan Hao used the wind blade to help him, but it still didn't cause any substantial damage to the foot. What was worse was that another foot stuck out from the bottom of the sea and trapped Shangguan Hao.

Yun Chujiu didn't have time to think about it. She took out a large kitchen knife and slashed at the foot. The large kitchen knife was indeed a must-have treasure when traveling at home. With one slash, it cut off one of the feet, a black, stinky liquid sprayed out from it, dyeing the surrounding seawater black.

Yun chujiu quickly cut off the wrist that trapped Shangguan Hao. The black liquid still sprayed out from the wrist.

The three of them tried their best to float up. Although there was a storm above, it was still much better than the hidden danger below.

“Junior sister Xiao Jiu, come over quickly and help me take a look. There seems to be something wrong with my foot,”an Linchuan suddenly said.

Yun chujiu quickly swam to an Linchuan’s side to check his feet. Unexpectedly, an Linchuan suddenly picked up the sword and stabbed at her. On the other side, Shangguan Hao also shot a few wind blades at Yun Chujiu.

Fortunately, Yun Chujiu had a defensive spiritual artifact on her, or else she would have been seriously injured.

“F * ck! Are you all crazy?”Yun chujiu shouted angrily after retreating to a safe distance.

Only then did she realize that the eyes of an Linchuan and Shangguan Hao had turned blood-red, looking very strange.

The first thing that came to Yun Chujiu’s mind was the black liquid ejected from her limbs. Could it be that the black liquid had the ability to confuse people’s hearts?

Now it seemed that it was not just a question of confusion, it seemed to be controlling the two of them. It was really troublesome!

An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao both attacked Yun chujiu as if they had gone mad. If they really fought, Yun Chujiu would naturally not be afraid of them. However, she could not hurt them, which would be troublesome.

Fortunately, an Linchuan had a fire spirit root, so his combat ability in the water was basically negligible. This made Yun chujiu feel a little more relaxed.

Before Yun Chujiu could think of a solution, a whirlpool suddenly rose from the bottom of the sea, and the three of them were involuntarily sucked into the whirlpool.

At this moment, the surface of the sea returned to its usual tranquility, as if nothing had happened.

Yun chujiu had been trying her best to stay awake in the whirlpool, and she even bit her own lips until they bled. Now, an Linchuan and the others had lost their consciousness. If she could not stay awake, none of the three of them would survive.

The whirlpool extended all the way down to the depths of the sea. Although Yun Chujiu had a luminous pearl around her neck, she could not see anything except for the spiral-shaped whirlpool.

Finally, the three of them stepped on the ground. Yun Chujiu looked down and her heart skipped a beat. The pattern of the resurrection Lily was carved on the green stone slab.

Before Yun Chujiu had time to think, an Linchuan and Shangguan Hao attacked her again. Moreover, since they were not in the water now, their attack power had greatly increased. Yun chujiu found it even more difficult to deal with them.

Yun chujiu gritted her teeth and threw a bag of chili noodles at the two of them..
