

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2821

The human-faced octopus was a little anxious. It could not show itself for too long, so it had to end the battle quickly. It gritted its teeth and began to chant some obscure incantations.

As the human-faced octopus chanted, the seawater turned into countless water arrows that shot towards Yun chujiu and the other two. Yun chujiu quickly used her spiritual energy shield to protect herself, but there were too many water arrows, so she could not hold on for too long.

At this moment, the little bastard's soft voice sounded, "Father, the shell."

Yun Chujiu's eyes lit up, and she quickly released the little bastard.

After the little bastard summoned the turtle shell, Yun Chujiu and the other two hid inside, while the turtle shell fell to the ground, not moving at all.

The human-faced octopus was clearly a little dumbfounded. It could be considered to be knowledgeable, but this was the first time it had encountered an enemy hiding in the turtle shell while fighting.

The water arrow hit the turtle shell and made a clanging sound, but it could not cause any damage to the turtle shell.

Just as the human-faced octopus was confused, a crack was opened in the turtle shell, and Hei Xinjiu shot several purple lightning bolts at the human-faced octopus.

The human-faced octopus saw that there was no ten-thousand-year-old fire marrow in it, so it did not care at all. It just slightly tilted its body to avoid the lightning bolts.

It did not know that the Purple Lightning had secretly made a turn. It turned around and went into the human-faced Octopus's seven orifices.

The human-faced octopus screamed in pain. Yun chujiu took the opportunity to swim out of the turtle shell and swung the kitchen knife at one of the human-faced Octopus's limbs..

After repeating this a few times, the human-faced Octopus's limbs were cut into pieces by Yun Chujiu, and the sea water was also dyed black.

"You, why aren't you afraid of My Venom?"The octopus finally discovered such a huge loophole.

Yun chujiu ignored it. While chopping with the large kitchen knife, she released the piglet of spiritual power to attack the face of the octopus.

“Stupid girl, don’t go too far! If you stop now and I let you go, we will pretend that nothing happened. Otherwise, even if I don’t live, you can forget about it! You will all be buried with me!”The human-faced octopus roared angrily.

Yun chujiu still ignored it and continued to intensify her attacks. Unless she was stupid, she would only listen to its threats. If she didn’t get rid of the root of the problem, there would be trouble in the future. No matter what, she had to kill this stinky fish today.

When the human-faced octopus saw that Yun chujiu was impervious, a crazy and bloodthirsty light flashed in its eyes. Its body began to expand rapidly. Yun chujiu was shocked. Was it going to self-destruct?

Yun chujiu quickly jumped into the turtle shell, and then she heard a loud sound. Immediately after, the turtle shell began to roll rapidly. It was probably caused by the shockwave from the self-destruct of the human-faced octopus.

Yun Chujiu was glad that she had this bastard’s shell. Otherwise, she would have been skinned alive. This bastard decided to treat this little bastard better for the sake of this bastard’s shell.

However, this bastard’s shell was really strong. The explosion of the human-faced octopus must have been very powerful. This bastard’s shell was actually able to withstand it. It was not simple!

After an unknown amount of time, Yun Chujiu felt that the shaking of the turtle shell was not as strong anymore. Only then did she let the little bastard open a crack in the turtle shell. She swam out to take a look and was stunned.

There was a small island not far away from them. It was originally nothing, but when she looked around, there were countless small islands around them like scattered chess pieces.

Where was this place?
