

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2824

Yun Chujiu had always been a big-hearted person. Although the current situation was unclear, she still enjoyed a petal bath. Then, she asked someone to call an Linchuan and an chujiu over to eat and drink together.

The two of them were almost worried to death. How could they still have the mood to eat! !

“Since you’re here, you should just take it as it is. You Won’t be able to solve the problem even if you’re worried. Try it. These dishes taste really good! Don’t worry, I’ve tried it. It’s not poisonous!” Yun Chujiu said in a low voice.

The two of them really didn’t eat anything other than the chili noodles that Yun chujiu had sprinkled on their faces. Thinking that they would at least be full to death, they decided to eat whatever they could.

After the three of them had eaten and drunk their fill, Shangguan Hao said, “I tried secretly, but the voice transmission talisman still doesn’t work. I guess this place should still be at the end of the world.”

Yun chujiu smiled and said, “If you want to know something, why don’t you just ask someone?”

Thus, this guy shouted at the door, “Come in, I have something to ask you.”

The two maids standing at the door opened the door and came in. They said respectfully, "Your Highness, what are your orders?"

"Let me ask you, what is the name of the sea outside the chessboard island?"

"The Sea of the setting sun." One of the short maids said respectfully.

Yun chujiu and the other two exchanged a glance. The Sea of the setting sun? They were clearly in the sea of the ends of the Earth. How did they end up in the Sea of the setting sun? Could it be that they were in the Sea of the setting sun?

"How many levels are the highest level sea beasts in the Sea of the setting sun? Are there any level 47 sea beasts?" Yun chujiu probed without batting an eyelid.

The maid was stunned, then, she said, "Your Highness, there are no sea beasts above level 40 near our chessboard island. However, it is said that the highest level sea beasts in the sea of sunset are only around level 45. I have never heard of any level 47 sea beasts."

Yun chujiu nodded. This actually did not mean anything. It was possible that the king lived in seclusion and was rarely seen by others.

Now, it didn't seem necessary to be torn between the sea of the horizon or the sea of the setting sun. Therefore, she changed the topic and asked, "The old man I spoke to before said that there has always been a prophecy of the fairy on your chessboard island. What's going on?"

The maid was stunned. "You mean the high priestess?"

So that old man was the high priestess? Yun chujiu nodded. "Yes, it's that old priest. Tell me about the prophecy of the fairy and related matters. After all, I'm about to ascend the throne, so I should know something."

Just as the short maid was about to speak, another tall maid tugged at her, "Your Highness, what do you want to know? The priest will tell you. If there's nothing else, we'll clean up the table."

Yun Chujiu's eyes flashed. She knew that she couldn't get anything out of them, so she waved her hand, indicating for them to go ahead.

After the two handmaidens left, an Linchuan lowered his voice and said, "Junior sister Xiao Jiu, I think that old man doesn't have good intentions. If you are really a heavenly lady, why would they be wary of you?"

Yun chujiu looked at an Linchuan with a teasing look. "Senior brother An, you are quite shrewd! I thought you were just a silly white sweet!"

Although an Linchuan did not understand what silly white sweet meant, he could tell that Yun Chujia was teasing him. He scratched his head and said, "I'm not a fool. I just don't like to use my brain! What should we do next?"?

"There are at least five to six thousand people on this island. Moreover, some of them can't see through their spiritual power at all. They should be higher than us. I'm afraid we have no chance of winning if we fight them head-on."