

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2831

"Of course, this is what I call being born beautiful and unable to give up! I was born with a beauty that could topple countries and cities, but after dressing up like this, even I was mesmerized to death. How could I be so good-looking? Sigh, being beautiful is actually a burden "...a certain Jiu said helplessly ...

An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao were speechless. As they understood more, they finally understood that the biggest advantage and biggest weakness of this fellow in front of them was that he was, well, Shameless!

A hint of jealousy flashed across the triangular-eyed maid's eyes. She thought sinisterly that this B * Tch would be sacrificed to the sea god very soon. No matter how beautiful she was, she would not be able to live!

The coronation ceremony was not held in the palace of Heavenly Maidens. Instead, it was arranged to be held on the beach on the island where Yun Chujiu and the others were found.

An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao did not understand what was going on, but Yun Chujiu knew. She planned to kill Yun Chujiu and sacrifice her to the sea god after the coronation ceremony. In her dreams!

A high platform had been built on the beach, and there were stairs leading to the top. There was a chair inlaid with seashells on the high platform. It was probably the throne of the so-called heavenly lady.

Soon, many islanders gathered on the beach, and there were also some young adults. The faces of those young adults were very pale, the kind of pale that couldn't see the sunlight all year round.

Yun chujiu thought to herself that these should be the labor of the young men who were mining. It seemed that the priest was going to make a big fuss out of her.

The priest had also changed into a set of clothes today. He was wearing a black robe and a mask that looked like an evil spirit.

Yun chujiu secretly pursed her lips. She made it look like a real thing, but the mask matched him very well. Wasn't it an evil spirit? !

When it was time, the priest announced the start of the coronation ceremony.

Yun chujiu was like a marionette. She followed the procedure that the priest had told her. Finally, after the priest read out a long and complicated sentence, she slowly ascended the throne.

Everyone, including the priest, knelt on the ground. "Greetings, Your Highness. Your Highness is blessed by the heavens and lives with the sea."

Yun chujju sneered in her heart. wasn't it living with the sea? She was going to be killed and fed to the bastard soon!

"Daddy! I Won't eat it!"The little bastard retorted. It meant that it wouldn't Eat Yun Chujiu.

Yun chujju scolded it. "Go to the side! Also, I'm Not Your Daddy. Call Me Daddy again in the future, and I'll Rip Off Your Bastard Shell!"

The little bastard felt wronged and didn't say anything. It really couldn't understand. When it had just broken out of its shell, it had felt a warm and beautiful father, but why did it become so fierce now? !

After Yun Chujiu finished off the little bastard in her spiritual sense, she looked at the people kneeling on the ground.

She said indifferently with a pretentious look, "Rise! Get Up!"

Just as the priest was about to proceed with the next step, which was to offer the so-called sacrifice to the sea god, he saw Yun chujju stand up, then, she said, "Everyone, you are all my subjects. In My Dream Last Night, I received a clear indication from the heavens that many of you are digging spirit stone mines at the bottom of the sea, am I right?"

Boom!

Everyone immediately exploded!

Everyone whispered to each other, saying that the fairy was indeed a fairy. She even knew about the matter of the spirit stone mines at the bottom of the sea.

The high priest had given a death order that no one was allowed to talk about the undersea spiritual stone mine. How did the fairy find out about it? It seemed like the heavens had made it clear!
