

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2846

The priest sneered, "Yun Chujiu, your skills are not as good as mine. I have nothing to say. However, if you want to get any information from me, don't even think about it!"

Yun chujiu knew that such an old fogey would not be able to get anything out of him even if she tortured him. Therefore, she directly knocked him out and prepared to search his soul.

Who would have thought that the moment her spiritual sense entered the priest's spiritual sense, the priest would bleed to death from all seven orifices.

As Yun Chujiu had checked earlier, the priest's mouth did not contain any poison, which meant that it was because of the soul imprint.

Yun chujiu sneered at the silver-masked men and the black-masked men. "Did you see that? "The Divine Devil Hall is so cruel to their loyal lackeys. You little scumbags are lucky to have turned back from the wrong path. Otherwise, you would have the same fate."

The people from the Divine Devil Temple looked terrified. They were sure that Yun Chujiu did not kill the priest because she had not gotten what she wanted to know. Moreover, the soul search had not started yet.

After Yun Chujiu took off the priest's storage ring, she interrogated the people from the Divine Devil Temple. The information she got was very limited,

“Alright, I said I would spare your lives. Now, hand over your storage rings and get lost!”

In order to save their lives, the people from the Divine Devil Hall had to remove their spiritual senses from their storage rings and hand them over to Yun Chujiu.

Yun chujiu then told them to get lost. She believed that after they saw the priest’s tragic death, they would not join the Divine Devil Hall even if they were asked to.

This fellow comforted everyone. When everyone returned to their respective ships, Yun Chujiu’s face was beaming like a flower.

An Linchuan was puzzled. “Junior Sister Jiu, we didn’t manage to get anything out of him. Why Are You So Happy?”

“Senior brother An, although we didn’t manage to get anything out of him, I managed to get my hands on that priest’s storage ring! “The spiritual ores that were dug out earlier are all in there. I’ve made a windfall. Do you think I’m Happy?”? Yun chujiu lowered her voice and said with a smile.

“Junior Sister Little Jiu, aren’t you going to give half of these spiritual ores to chessboard island?”

“Of course not! The ores that they have obtained are enough for them to live a carefree life for a few lifetimes! Moreover, they have been isolated from the mainland for too long. They might even be scammed to the point that they will turn upside down!”!

“I’ll help them collect these ores first. I’ll visit them in a few years. If they are living well, then forget it. But if they are living a miserable life, I’ll give them some more,”yun chujju said with conviction.

An linchuan pondered over the meaning of her words. Although it seemed to make sense, he still felt that she was looking for an excuse to monopolize these spiritual ores.

After another two days, they finally saw a few fishing boats. Everyone was elated. They were finally going ashore!

Yun Chujju gave some pills to the sea beasts and sent them away. The sea beasts were reluctant to leave. They cried for a while before diving into the sea.

After a day, they finally saw the shore. The people of Chessboard Island had mixed feelings. They were happy that they had survived the disaster, but they were also afraid of the unknown life.

After they got ashore, the voice transmission talismans in Yun chujju’s storage rings trembled non-stop. The three of them quickly replied to them one by one.

Yun chujiu first replied to Jin Zhi and ye Bingyu, then to Xue Wuji and an Feng, and then to a certain guy who was extremely angry.

After a certain guy received a reply, he only replied with one word, "Yes."

A certain jiu immediately felt unhappy. No matter what, she had a slim chance of survival, but this pretty boy only replied with one "Yes"?
