

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2849

An Linchuan was rendered speechless by Yun Chujiu's words, but he was still unconvinced.

It wasn't until a few years later that he accidentally learned from others that all the islands in Lie Yan's sea had formed the thousand-island alliance. The Alliance leader was a young man named Qi Liang.

Coincidentally, Lie Yan's name was Qi Liang. Yun Chujiu had even mocked him behind his back. This Lie Yan's name was really terrible. Wouldn't Qi Liang Be Miserable? !

Although there were a few twists and turns on the way, it was basically smooth sailing. After more than a month, they arrived at the Sea of fire.

Since Yun Chujiu and the others had thousands of people, they naturally attracted a lot of attention.

Especially after they found out that they had boarded the ship and entered the sea, some island owners couldn't sit still anymore and sent people to inquire about the news.

Yun chujiu simply gathered these island owners together, and then said: “Everyone, we just want to find an island in the Sea of fire as a place to lie Yan.”.

You Don’t have to worry about your interests being violated, we will try to stay out of your sphere of influence. Of course, if anyone has a suitable island for us, we’d appreciate it.”

The island owners looked at each other and snorted in their hearts. They had thousands of people, more than the number of people on their island. Who knew what they were thinking? !

A bearded man cleared his throat and said, “Miss Yun, to tell you the truth, the number of islands in the Sea of fire itself is not many. Basically, they have all been occupied. Lie Yan, do you know how many islands there are in the Sea of Fire?”.

“Moreover, there are so many of you. It’s not easy to find a suitable island to live on. “I say, you should just settle down in Binhai City! “Why do you have to live on the sea?”

Hearing his words, Yun Chujiu didn’t have any antipathy. After all, they were considered outsiders, and it would affect their interests. It was understandable for her to feel conflicted.

“What this island owner said makes sense, but my islanders are used to living on islands, so they still want to find a suitable island.”.

“Lie Yan...” I don’t quite understand. The Sea of fire is so big, so logically speaking, shouldn’t there be many islands? “We can give up the islands near the sea. It doesn’t matter if we are farther away,” Yun Chujiu said with a faint smile on her face and a calm tone.

The island owners saw that Yun Chujiu’s attitude was good, and she did not speak aggressively, so the resistance in their hearts was slightly reduced. The bearded man continued to say:

“Miss Yun, I think you are also a real person, I will tell you the truth! Don’t look at Lie Yan’s sea so big, but do you know why it is called Lie Yan’s Sea?”

An Linchuan heard whiskers said that Yun Chujiu is a real person, almost burst out laughing, this guy is real people? She was simply a little devil who would not spit out a bone!

Yun Chujiu glared at an Linchuan, who was winking at her. Then, she said to the bearded man, “This, I only heard that there seems to be flames rising from the ground in the Sea of fire. I don’t know the specifics.” Lie Yan was stunned “You’re right. That’s how the Sea of fire got its name. Although the Sea of fire is very large, there are many heaven flames in the Sea of fire. The surrounding seawater is like boiling water, and there’s no way to get close to it,” Lie Yan explained.

“Therefore, only the islands near the sea can be inhabited. The islands in the far sea are blocked by the heavenly flames. Humans have no way to reach them,” explained the bearded man.

Yun chujiu suddenly realized that it was so. The problem was more troublesome now. It seemed that the bearded man was not lying. Other than the dove occupying the magpie's nest, there was no way to find a suitable island to live on.

However, although Hei Xinjiu was greedy for money, she still disdained to do the dove occupying the magpie's nest. Could it be that she could only leave the Sea of fire and search for another sea?
