

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2852

Both Lie Yan and the people of Coconut Island felt that their heads were not big enough when they saw the enormous spiritual beast in front of them.

Although they had seen some people release spiritual beasts that were very big, they were not that big. This was too big! They did not expect that a delicate little girl's spiritual beast was actually such a big pig. TSK TSK, it was really unexpected.

Lie Yan and the fire seals felt that their performance just now was a little embarrassing, so they all shot fireballs at Da Hua. They thought to themselves, no matter how big your body is, you're just a spiritual beast, what else can you do? ! Burn you to death!

Lie Yan did not reject any of Da Hua's attacks. She swallowed the fireballs that were shot out by the fire seals into her stomach, and then her body became even more solid.

Lie Yan and the fire seals had never seen such a spiritual beast before? ? Lie Yan was stunned. What kind of monster was this? How could it swallow their fireballs?

Lie Yan and Lie Yan were stunned. Da Hua approached Lie Yan and Lie Yan step by step. Lie Yan and Lie Yan could not help but retreat. What was this pig trying to do?

Lie Yan and Lie Yan quickly reacted. What was there to be afraid of! Lie Yan and Lie Yan were sea beasts. Even though Lie Yan was powerful on land, he might disappear in the sea!

So, those lie Yan seals feel the bottom of the heart, arrogant roar up.

Da Hua's huge body jumped forward and plopped into the sea.

Those lie Yan seals can not wait to rush up, want to tear da Hua to pieces, but they sadly found that the pig can swim!

Lie Yan: and a hoof can kick a fire seal dozens of feet away, tail a casual sweep, there is a string of fire seal was sent flying..

Da Hua was having fun in the water. She kept flapping her wings, and then the flaming seals were sent flying with a whoosh. In an instant, the sea was bustling with activity, as if they were dumplings being cooked.

Lie Yan and lie Yan's hearts were about to collapse!

They had never thought that they would be played like this by a spiritual beast. This was simply too embarrassing for the seals! It was intolerable! Even if their uncle could tolerate it, the seals couldn't!

Therefore, all the blazing fire seals stopped attacking lie Yan's Coconut Island and rushed towards da Hua.

Although da Hua was abnormal, it was impossible for him to deal with so many blazing fire seals. Very soon, his figure faded and disappeared.

Before the blazing fire seals could celebrate their victory, they saw a group of piglets with spiritual power fiercely pouncing towards them. Lie Yan and the rest of the blazing fire seals had already disappeared.

Soon, when the piglets with spiritual power disappeared, Da Hua appeared out of nowhere again. With a few flaps, several fire seals flew out..

Lie Yan and lie Yan were on the verge of collapse!

That's right, they had overlooked a very important problem. That Damned pig was a spiritual beast. There was no question of whether it would die or not. As long as its master's spiritual power was not exhausted, it could resurrect countless times. F * ck, it didn't want to live anymore! How could it bully a seal like that! This was called cheating!

Everyone on Coconut Island looked at the chaotic battle on the sea with a dumbfounded expression. The blazing fire seal, which gave them a headache, was now being played by a huge spiritual pig until it had nothing to live for. No matter how they looked at it, they felt like they were in a dream.

Lie Yan and the rest of the blazing fire seals in the group of blazing fire seals roared a few times, and then all of the blazing fire seals ran away!

They thought to themselves, it's a fool not to run when you know you can't win! There are other islands. Take it out on other humans!

Da Hua saw the toys run away, in the sea for a while, and then disappeared.
