

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 286

Everyone stared at Yun Chujiu and the others who were eating so sweetly!

Who the hell came out to train and even brought a banquet? What a foodie!

Some people looked at Yun Chujiu's storage ring.

The storage ring was expensive and was not something that ordinary people could afford. They did not know where Yun Chujiu got a storage ring from! It was probably given to her by Elder Qi! She was really lucky!

Yun Chujiu was very shrewd. When she saw that Elder Xiao and the other elders had not eaten yet, she ran over eagerly. "Elders, you haven't eaten yet, right? I've prepared a feast for you, please accept it!"

Although the elders did not care about their appetites, food that looked good, was fragrant, and tasty was naturally much better than having fasting pills. Therefore, their attitude toward Yun Chujiu turned as warm as spring!

The people who were eating the steamed buns secretly cursed Yun Chujiu for being shameless. Then, they secretly made up their minds. In the future, they would work hard to earn money. If they could not afford a storage ring, it would be good to buy a few more storage bags. Otherwise, they would only be able to store steamed buns.

After Yun Chujiu was done with being hospitable, she returned to her seat and continued eating.

The next morning, everyone arrived at the trial ground.

Everyone got off the airship and was stunned. Did they not say that the trial ground was an ancient mystic realm? This place was bare. No need to even mention an ancient mystic realm, there was not even a strand of hair!

Elder Qu saw everyone's confusion and could not help but twitch his lips. 'What a bunch of small fry! Well, that Yun Chujiu barely even counts!'

Elder Qu and Elder Xiao joined hands to form a seal and threw out a shiny object.

Yun Chujiu's eyes immediately began to glow with blue light. 'It was a treasure! What kind of precious object was that?'

Yun Chujiu focused her gaze and immediately felt deflated. It turned out to be just a fragment of a mirror.

After Elder Qu and Elder Xiao's hand seals landed on the mirror fragment, the scene before everyone's eyes changed.

A huge mountain gate appeared in front of everyone. Although it was dilapidated, the faint prehistoric aura it exuded made people involuntarily want to kneel down and worship it.

The pillars of the mountain gate were carved with ancient and complicated patterns. Some curious disciples stared at it for a while and immediately felt dizzy. They hurriedly lowered their heads and did not dare to look at it again. It was as if taking a glance at it was a blasphemy to this ancient relic.

"The trial will last for a month. The final result will be calculated based on the demonic beast inner core and spiritual pill that you've obtained. Later on, each of you will be given a jade token. If you encounter danger and want to voluntarily give up, you only need to crush the jade token and you'll be teleported out! When the trial's deadline is up, you'll be teleported out! Now, enter the grounds!" Elder Xiao said in a deep voice.

Just as the people of Spirit Radiance Sect were about to enter the trial grounds, a huge airship flew over from the sky. Those with sharp eyes immediately recognized it. "It's the spaceship of the Heavenly Gates Sect! Don't tell me they're also here to train?!"

After the airship landed, a few people who looked like elders walked out first, followed by some disciples, odd-job workers, and so on.

Walking in front of the group of disciples was a beautiful and refined woman with a cold and arrogant face. However, she looked at Yun Chujiu as if she had been poisoned. It was Su Yanran!

When the Bai siblings saw Su Yanran, their eyes revealed a strange joy. 'Yun Chujiu, you're dead meat this time!'

Elder Xiao and the others were very surprised. Over the years, although the four great sects did not have an explicit agreement, they had tacitly avoided the time of the other sects' trial. What did the Heavenly Gate Sect mean with this?

"Haha! Everyone, Please! I didn't expect that the trial for the new disciples of our two sects would actually be held on the same day! What a coincidence!" An old man with a hooked nose cupped his hands at Elder Qu and the others!

Although Elder Xiao and the others were bewildered, they were still chatting happily with the elders of the Heavenly Gate Sect.

After chatting for a while, they reverted to the main topic. Elder Zhang, the leader of the Heavenly Gates Sect, said with a fake smile, "Everyone, our two sects are fated. Since we've met, why don't we make a bet?"

"Make a bet?" Elder Xiao thought to himself, 'It seems that the Heavenly Gate Sect had lost their honor last time, so this time, they're looking for trouble!'
