

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2880

An Linchuan took the rock that Yun Chujiu handed to him and took a closer look. As expected, he found something fishy.

Sometimes, the truth was just a piece of paper that could not be seen without being exposed. When he found out the truth, he felt suspicious no matter how he looked at it.

An Linchuan picked up a few more rocks and took a look. Finally, he ran to observe the few big rocks. Then, he was horrified to find that they were all really bones!

An Linchuan asked with a trembling voice, "Junior sister Xiao Jiu, do you think these bones belong to humans or beasts?"

Yun chujiu held the rolling pin and pulled for a while, then said, "I really can't tell, but those big bones definitely don't belong to humans."

"Junior sister Xiao Jiu, why do you think there are so many bones here? Let's hurry up and report it to the sect leader!"

An Linchuan felt a chill run down his spine when he recalled that the person he had confided to in his childhood was actually a pile of bones.

“It’s not too late to report this later. Let’s look around first. What if there is some treasure buried here!” A certain Jiu was not even afraid of the Yama Palace. These bones were a piece of cake. Besides, if these bones were in danger, an Linchuan, this idiot, would not be alive and kicking until now.

“Junior sister Xiao Jiu, it’s not that I want to say this, but you are such a money-grubber! These are all bones, how could there be any treasures? !”

Although an Linchuan said so, he was already used to listening to Yun Chujiu’s arrangements. Thus, he could only take out his sword and start to pull the small bones on the ground.

The two of them pulled for a long time, but they didn’t find any so-called treasures. Yun chujiu touched her chin and looked at the few large bones. Suddenly, a trace of surprise flashed in her eyes.

She instructed an Linchuan to move the few large bones together. The gaps were actually tightly sewn together. After the two of them put the large bones together, they were surprised to find that these large bones were actually a skull, to be exact, it was the skull of a fish.

“This, this is actually the skull of a fish? Those small bones must be the bones of a fish. No wonder they are all small bones. “But, why would such a big fish’s bones appear in the inner land of our primordial chaos sect?” An Linchuan was extremely surprised.

Yun chujiu rubbed her chin and thought for a while. "This is nothing strange. The world has changed. The primordial chaos sect is now the inner land. Perhaps tens of thousands of years ago, it was the sea. Besides, what is the name of the city next to the Primordial Chaos Sect?"

"Ninghai City? Ninghai City! Yes, isn't Ninghai meant to pray for the Peace of the sea? Could it be that this place was really the sea in the past?" An Linchuan felt that his brain was not enough.

"Maybe! Since we have nothing to do, let's try and see if we can piece together a complete skeleton." Yun Chujiu was also bored, as she spoke, she actually started to look for slightly larger bones and started to piece them together.

An Linchuan was also a nonsensical person. He actually thought that this suggestion was not bad. If they could really make a skeleton, this could be considered as an explanation for his lost childhood.

The two were bored to death. After fighting for a few days, they finally managed to make a rough outline. After all, there were some small bones that could not be determined.

This was the skeleton of a giant fish that was about 500 feet long, and there were many sharp teeth bones. It could be deduced that this was a very powerful sea beast.
