

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2899

“What do you mean you’re wrong? You’re wrong! You Bastard, you wronged me, and you even destroyed my courtyard. You made my heart turn cold, SOB SOB...”

“Yes, yes, it’s all my fault. Don’t Cry!” A certain someone felt that even if he was chased by the enemy, it was better than seeing his little wife cry. This was too torturous!

“SOB, will you run away from home in the future? Won’t you reply to My Voice Transmission Talisman in the future? Will you throw a tantrum in the future?”

“I won’t, I definitely won’t!” A certain Jiu shook her head like a rattle-drum.

“Alright, then I’ll reluctantly forgive you! Help me get some water and help me wipe my face.” A certain Jiu was proud in her heart. Little Fellow, I still can’t Teach You a lesson, you tsundere!

A certain jiu started to get busy in a muddle-headed manner. She helped a certain jiu wash her face and feet. In the end, she even sang a lullaby several times.

Before a certain jiu fell asleep, a question flashed through his mind. He was here to interrogate him. Why did it turn into an apology in the end?

The next day, during breakfast, Yun chujiu told di beiming what happened after that. Then, she said, "Prince Charming, I have some new ideas about the Divine Devil Hall now.

"I think the Divine Devil Hall must have existed in the past. However, for some unknown reason, it fell and some survivors were suppressed in various places. The Lord must have been suppressed there too.

"In addition, the Divine Devil Hall... This name is really strange. How can gods and Devils be combined together? "Prince Charming, are there any clues about the Divine Devil Hall in the seal that you have broken?"

Di beiming shook his head. "I have only broken one-fifth of the seal at most. I don't know much about many things.

"However, your guess should be correct. The Lord of the godfiend temple must have been suppressed or sealed somewhere. Otherwise, he would have gone into battle personally.

"As for the name of the godfiend temple, although there are some strange aspects, it doesn't mean anything. It could also be that they are deliberately mystifying things."

"Male god, I feel that the Yan race's invasion this time is definitely related to the Divine Devil Hall. Compared to the demon race, I hate the Yan race who are just a fence-sitter."

Di beiming lightly snorted, "The Yan race is just a clown! In the future, you will encounter a race that is even more despicable and shameless than the Yan race.

"Little Jiu, I might need to enter a secret realm to retrieve something very important. There, I won't be able to sense the jade token I gave you. "So, don't leave the primordial chaos sect for the time being. Cultivate obediently. Do You Hear Me?"

A certain jiu curled her lips and nodded. "Got it!"! Wasn't it just the eight character Maxim! Cultivate properly and don't cause trouble! "Don't worry. I'll need to refine the lightning energy that I absorbed before. I Won't leave the Primordial Chaos sect. "Even if the three months are up, I'll still stay here and not leave."

Di beiming rubbed Yun Chujiu's little head and said seriously, "You must keep your word. Otherwise, I won't let you off after I come out."

Yun chujiu shrunk her neck, looking like she was afraid of the baby. Actually, this fellow's mouth twitched in his heart. Won't let her off? Little Fellow, it was still uncertain who would take care of who! You Arrogant Fellow!

How could di beiming know what this fellow was thinking? He nodded his head in satisfaction and said, "Although the Yan clan isn't worth mentioning, the humans have been at peace for too long. I reckon that this dispute won't be settled too quickly.

“Who knows, it might even affect the primordial chaos sect. You are just a handyman. When the time comes, don’t rush to stand out, understand?”
