

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2920

Everyone was so angry that they were twitching. What did they mean by doing something immoral? !

Some people were quick-witted and felt that Yun chujiu probably had some kind of defensive spirit tool on her, so these vines, poisonous bees, and red ants would not attack her.

Therefore, they all shouted, "Little girl, come and save me. I Won't let you help me for nothing."

"That's right, little girl. As long as you save me, I'll Give You Spirit Stones. As long as you give me a price, it'll be fine."

"Little girl, I expelled you from the loose cultivator alliance because Liu Zhuang instigated it. I didn't say anything at that time! Come and help me, I'll definitely thank you heavily."

..

After Yun Chujiu finished eating the melon seeds in her hand, she grabbed another handful and said with a grin, "I'm sorry, I can't do anything either! Besides, I'm not a person who's greedy for money.

“On account of the fact that we’ve been together for a period of time, I’ll convey your wish to resist the nightmare clan to the Allied army when we arrive at the Ten Thousand Miles Tall Gobi Desert. You can all go in peace!”

Seeing that Yun Chujiu was unmoved, everyone placed the breakthrough point on Feng Zhi.

“Steward Feng, you’re the kindest. Hurry up and save us! If we delay any longer, we’ll lose our lives!”

“That’s right, Old Feng. We have a good relationship. Please save us for the sake of our past friendship!”

Hei Xinjiu had already given Feng Zhi some thought work. She had said that if he was not lucky, he would die without a burial place, and if he really died, Zhao Zijing would tell the people of the Alliance army that he had embezzled the alliance’s spiritual stones, he had committed suicide because he was afraid of the consequences.

Feng Zhi had been brainwashed by Yun Chujiu all day long. Now, whenever he saw the people of the unaffiliated cultivator alliance, he would gnash his teeth in hatred. Why would he save them? !

Feng Zhi snorted coldly. "Friendship? When you banished me, you didn't say anything about friendship. Besides, these vines and poisonous insects are not our spiritual pets and spiritual plants. We Can't save you either. You should save yourselves!"

Seeing that Yun Chujiu and the other two had no intention of saving them, the people of the loose cultivator alliance turned hostile! They started to curse.

However, they soon found that the more they cursed, the more the red ants liked them. They were bitten and screamed in pain.

Especially that bearded man. He was directly stung by a desert poisonous bee and died!

The crowd finally came to a conclusion in horror. Even if these vines, wasps, and red ants weren't Leng Xiao Jiu's spiritual pets, they were probably related to her, otherwise, they wouldn't have attacked people selectively.

How, How was this possible?

However, now was obviously not the time to find out the reason. Survival was the most important thing.

Zhao Zijing said loudly, “Leng Xiaojiu, although we have some misunderstandings with you, we are all knowledgeable people who are fighting against the nightmare race. Aren’t you afraid of being blamed by the people in the world for doing this? !”

“Aiyo, President Zhao, you can’t just say that! How can a good-for-nothing like me command these little things? !”!

“Besides, since President Zhao is so righteous, just kill yourself. Maybe these little things will be full after eating you and won’t eat anyone else!”!

“As the president of the unaffiliated cultivator alliance, don’t you have the spirit of Sacrifice?” Hei Xinjiu said with a smile, but the smile didn’t reach her eyes.

You want to play the moral kidnapping game with me? I’ll kill you!
