

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2927

"Alliance Master Yan, logically speaking, our freelance martial artist Alliance should be under your command and listen to your orders. However, you also know that we freelance martial artists are used to being undisciplined, and I'm afraid we don't fit in.

"How about this, you assign a defensive area to our freelance martial artist alliance. We will definitely guard the defensive line with our lives and never retreat," Hei Xinjiu said with a faint smile.

Alliance Master Yan frowned. This little girl clearly wanted to establish her own sect. She was young, but her ambition was not small. However, what she said made some sense. Unaffiliated cultivators had always been disobedient. If they were to be merged into the Alliance Army, there might be trouble.

However, although there were quite a number of unaffiliated cultivators, could they be loyal to their duties?

Just as Alliance Master Yan was hesitating., the head of the fan family snorted coldly. "Alliance master, since the unaffiliated cultivator alliance wants to establish their own sect, then let them guard the Deathwind Gap! Anyway, they have more people, so they can form a human wall to hold on for a while."

The expressions of everyone present were a little unnatural. The words of the head of the fan family obviously carried a hint of mockery. It was nothing more than saying that the unaffiliated cultivator alliance could not withstand a single blow and could only rely on numbers to make up the numbers.

Moreover, the windbreak was the most difficult part of the defensive line to defend. It was easy to attack but difficult to defend. wasn't this just watching the loose cultivator alliance make a fool of themselves? !

It was likely that in a few days, the loose cultivator alliance would suffer heavy losses. This was a little too unethical!

Alliance Master Yan frowned. Although he was dissatisfied with Yun Chujiu's decision to establish her own sect, regardless of whether it was from the overall situation or from his own heart, he would not do such a thing to scam people.

Alliance Master Yan looked at the fan family's patriarch with disapproval and then said to Yun chujiu, "How about this, the yellow mud mound is easy to defend but hard to attack. Your Freelance Martial Artist Alliance will go and defend there!"

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes. "Alliance Master Yan, the fan family's patriarch is right. Our freelance martial artist alliance has many people, so we should go and defend the malefic wind gap! If you are worried, you can send a few helpers for us."

The people in the meeting tent suddenly had another comment about Yun chujiu. She was young and frivolous!

This little girl really did not know what was good for her. The yellow mud mound that Alliance Master Yan assigned to them was the easiest area to guard in the defense line. She actually took the initiative to ask to guard the windbreak. This was simply asking for trouble.

The head of the fan family's eyes revealed a look of contempt. A little girl really took him seriously? She actually took the initiative to request to guard the storm vent, and there would be a day when she would cry!

Alliance Master Yan was also a little displeased in his heart. He thought to himself, since you are asking for trouble, then it would be good to let you suffer a little. It would be a good opportunity to temper her arrogance. Young people still needed to temper their edges, or they would sooner or later suffer a great loss.

Alliance Master Yan swept his gaze around the large tent for the meeting. Just as he was about to send a few people to help Yun Chujiu, he heard Yun Chujiu say:

"Alliance Master Yan, I heard that there are many young talents from the Hun Yuan sect and the Shi Yuan sect. Can you send a few of them to us? They are all young people so we can communicate with them."

Everyone secretly shook their heads. How did this Leng Xiaojiu become the alliance master of the unaffiliated cultivator alliance? This brain of his was simply full of holes!

Instead of looking for help from a mighty figure like mountain Master Zhuo, he actually asked for a few hotheads. wasn't this sick or what? !

Alliance Master Yan had originally held some hope for the unaffiliated cultivator alliance, but now there was practically nothing left. If alliance master was so unreliable, then this unaffiliated cultivator alliance probably wouldn't be able to withstand a single blow.