

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2930

No one from the unaffiliated cultivator alliance made a sound. Even if there were a few who wanted to retreat, they were too embarrassed to step forward.

What a joke. They had already come, wouldn't it make people laugh their heads off if they backed out now? !

Yun chujiu nodded with satisfaction. "Very good. They are indeed the mainstays of our immortal origin continent. As long as there is still one person left in our unaffiliated cultivator alliance, the malefic vent will never fall into the hands of the Yan clan. We vow to live and die together with the base!"

"We vow to live and die together with the base!"

"We vow to live and die together with the base!"

Loud and uniform voices rang out like thunder. Even an Linchuan and Shangguan Hao were affected by this imposing manner and could not help but shout out as well.

Such a loud noise naturally attracted the attention of many people. Even the people in the large meeting tent also came out to check. When they saw the imposing loose cultivator alliance, they were truly shocked.

This, this was the unaffiliated cultivator alliance?

Shouldn't the unaffiliated cultivator alliance be a loose sand? ! How could it be so disciplined? !

Moreover, this aura could be described as having the power to Swallow Mountains and rivers. Although there were only a few thousand people, this aura was even more powerful than the tens of thousands of people in the Alliance army. It was really strange!

Everyone thought that Yun Chujiu was overestimating herself when she took the initiative to defend the Wind Gap. Now that they looked at it, it seemed like she had some tricks up her sleeve. Perhaps she could really do it?

The head of the fan family snorted coldly, "These are just superficial moves. With a little effort, the Alliance army will be like this in less than three days. Fighting is not acting, so what's the use of looking good? "It still depends on actual combat ability."

Although everyone felt that what the head of the fan family said was not pleasant to hear, they felt that what he said made sense. Although it looked good, it was useless if it was just a show.

At this time, Yun Chujiu had already led the loose cultivator alliance to the wind gap.

The Wind Gap was a few hundred Li away from the Alliance Army's meeting tent. However, these cultivators were very fast. After two hours, they had arrived at the wind gap. Bai Li and the rest of the group had already arrived at the wind gap.

Yun chujiu finally understood the origin of the wind gap. There was an endless mountain range in the vast desert, which was a natural barrier.

The place where the gust of wind came from was the narrowest and shortest part of the mountain range, and there was a fierce gust of wind.

The worst part was that the gust of wind came from the direction of the nightmare race. In other words, when the nightmare race attacked, they weren't affected by the gust of wind, but the side defending was facing it. The gust of wind was filled with tiny wind blades, although it wasn't fatal, it would greatly reduce their battle-power.

Mountain Master Zhao of the fire peak of the sky killing sect, who had been defending the wind gap, was surprised when he saw Yun Chujiu and the others.

“Mountain Master Zhao, What’s going on?” Mountain Master Zhao asked. After seeing the document with the Alliance Army seal on it., he then said, “Alright, since that’s the case, we’ll retreat. I’ll leave the wind gap to you. The nightmare race has been doing a lot recently, so you have to be careful.”

Yun chujiu nodded her head, “Mountain Master Zhao, don’t worry. Our Alliance will definitely guard the killing wind gap. We Won’t give the nightmare race any chance to take advantage of it.”

In truth, Mountain Master Zhao really didn’t trust the alliance, even though it seemed like it was a big deal. Would it really work? Would it collapse the moment it encountered the attack of the Nightmare Race?

However, since there was a transfer order from the higher-ups, it wasn’t good for him to do anything. After giving a few more instructions, he left the killing wind port with his subordinates.

Yun chujiu inspected the terrain and immediately arranged for the alliance to set up camp
