

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2933

"Gag his mouth so that I don't get upset when I hear him shouting!" Yun Chujiu said in disgust.

One of his men immediately gagged Linchuan's mouth and dragged him down.

Shangguan Hao was shocked!

When he reacted, Linchuan, the unlucky boy, had been dragged out. He was about to speak when he heard Yun Chujiu sigh:

"Young hero Shangguan, I had no choice. Young hero Linchuan has a straightforward personality, but he is really outspoken. This is a battlefield, and I have thousands of soldiers under me. If I don't punish him, where will my authority be? !

"I have tolerated him a few times before, but not only is he unrepentant, he has become even worse. His crimes are unforgivable! "Young hero Shangguan, you're a sensible person. I hope you can understand my painstaking efforts."

The reason why Yun Chujiu found an excuse to punish Linchuan was, firstly, to protect her reputation as the leader of the unaffiliated cultivator alliance. Secondly, Linchuan's outspoken personality was bound to cause trouble sooner or later, it would be good to teach him a lesson so that he would learn his lesson.

Shangguan Hao was speechless by Yun Chujiu's words. Perhaps he and an Linchuan felt that this Leng Xiaojiu was very similar to junior sister Xiaojiu, so he acted arrogantly.

Indeed, although they were the true disciples of the Hunyuan sect, they were only members of the loose cultivator alliance on the front line. An Linchuan had no reason or position to say what he had just said. The ten army batons were indeed too light.

Thinking of this, Shangguan Hao swallowed his plea.

Leng Kui, who was at the side, knew that Yun Chujiu was doing this to protect her prestige as the alliance leader. However, he still secretly thought that this an linchuan had not offended this bad news bag before, right? This troublemaker wouldn't be using his official position to seek personal revenge, right?

After a short while, an Linchuan was brought back.

Because he was a cultivator, the ten army batons were actually nothing. It was like scratching an itch. However, this guy was proud and arrogant. After being beaten up by the ten army batons in front of everyone, one could imagine how much he hated Yun Chujiu, his eyes were about to spit fire.

However, his spiritual power was restrained, so it couldn't pose any threat to Yun Chujiu.

Yun chujju sneered, "You hate me very much?"

An linchuan snorted, "HMPH!"! There was nothing to say that I was now under the control of others. However, I don't think I was wrong! Your decision just now was an extremely stupid mistake! I said those words for the safety of the Immortal Yuan continent. I wasn't wrong."

Yun chujju laughed softly, "You are not wrong? Then if I run to your primordial chaos sect and Tell Master Baili that he is not worthy to be the sect leader of the primordial chaos sect, I might as well give the position of sect leader to Mountain Masster Zhuo. What do you think will happen to me?"

An Linchuan's face was flushed red from the rebuke, he tried to defend himself, "Even if what I said at the end is my fault, what about the first part? Your decision will put the entire alliance army in a passive position. You made a wrong decision, yet you don't allow others to express their opinions?"

Yun chujju glanced at him, "I will give you a chance to prove that you are wrong. Go to the horseshoe colt that is ten miles away from the windbreak and take a look. If there is no team from the Alliance army there to reinforce and defend our windbreak, I will give the position of the Alliance Master to the Deputy Alliance Master of Leng Datu."

Leng Kui could not care less about the outdated name and said in surprise, "Are you saying that Alliance Master Yan has deployed troops at the Horseshoe Colt? Just to prevent us from not being able to defend the windbreak?"

Yun chujia laughed self-deprecatingly, "Our unaffiliated cultivator alliance is just a motley crew. How can the alliance trust us with such an important pass like the Wind Gap?" "There will definitely be a reinforcement team at the Horseshoe Colt, and the number will not be less than two thousand people."
