

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2935

An Linchuan suddenly felt that he had something to show off. He said proudly, "Although the Yan clan's body can not turn into a fog like the demon clan, they have a natural talent, which is to release the Yan Qi.

"After a cultivator inhales the Yan Qi, their thinking and actions will become sluggish. In this way, when the human clan and the Yan clan are fighting, they will have to divert their attention to avoid inhaling the Yan Qi, and their fighting strength will be greatly reduced."

Yun chujiu glanced at him. "These books all have introductions, do you even need to tell me?"

An Linchuan:" ..."

This guy really wanted to slap himself, so he called him a mouth man!

Shangguan Hao was afraid that this guy, an Linchuan, would anger Yun chujiu again, so he quickly said, "Other than these, the nightmare race's people are all very outstanding in appearance, and they also have their own charm.

"In addition, the people of the Yan clan don't raise spirit beasts, but nightmare beasts that consume nightmare energy. "Nightmare Beasts are generally larger in size, and they have fierce temperaments. They are very difficult to deal with."

Yun chujiu nodded. Shangguan Hao was obviously much more reliable than that idiot, an Linchuan.

In order to get back at him, an Linchuan said, "How is it? Do you feel that you're thinking too simply now? Even if it's really like you said, and the Yan clan will attack from the yellow mud mound, you may not be able to help even if you bring four battalions."

"We'll know when we find out if we can't help. However, young master an, do you want to be intimate with the military staff again?"

An Linchuan immediately became listless. He didn't want to embarrass himself anymore! Leng Xiaojiu, we'll see! He wouldn't be a gentleman if he didn't take revenge!

That night, a freelance martial artist on duty hurriedly reported, "Alliance leader, the nightmare race is starting to make a move."

Yun Chujiu's eyes lit up. Good timing! She had nothing better to do!

This fellow propped up his spiritual energy barrier and climbed to the top of the mountain to look at the Yan clan's side. As expected, there were many black shadows moving. Although there was moonlight, one could only make out a rough outline.

An Linchuan lowered his voice. "I think your guess is definitely wrong! The Yan clan is obviously sending more troops to the windbreak. Perhaps they will launch an attack in the second half of the night."

Yun chujiu shook her head. "Although the Yan clan is sending more troops, you can see that the movements of those black shadows seem orderly but are actually chaotic. They must be setting up a trap."

"Uncle Feng, the three of us will bring the other four battalions to reinforce the yellow mud mound immediately." "You and Vice Alliance leader Leng will guard the windbreak. You Don't want to make any mistakes but you don't want to make any meritorious deeds. Just slowly deal with them and don't advance recklessly."

"It doesn't matter even if they really attack. Anyway, once the sounds of fighting start, those people from horseshoe colt will rush over soon. Don't worry."

After spending the past few days together, Feng Zhi knew that although this Leng Xiao Jiu was young, he was a man of his word. He immediately nodded and said, "Alliance leader, don't worry. I will do my best to guard the Wind Gap."

Yun Chujiu gave a few more instructions before leading an Linchuan and Shangguan Hao to lead four battalions of itinerant cultivators to the yellow mud mound.

The yellow mud mound was named because there was a large yellow mud swamp in the direction of the Yan clan. Due to the fact that flying was prohibited here, it was extremely difficult for the Yan clan to attack.

As the yellow mud mound was easy to defend but hard to attack, the Alliance army only sent less than eight hundred men to defend. The leader was fan jiquan, the son of the head of the fan family, who was also fan Mingchuan's father.

Back then, the head of the fan family had spent a lot of effort to obtain the yellow mud mound. It was easy to defend but hard to attack, so it was the least dangerous. Not only could it increase the fan family's prestige, but it would not be dangerous.
