

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2945

Mountain Master Zhuo didn't continue the conversation with the head of the fan family. Instead, he said, "Head of the fan family, let's go up and take a look at the situation first!"

The head of the fan family was quite dissatisfied with mountain master Zhuo's interruption of his bragging. However, thinking about it, fan Jiquan and Fan Mingchuan had made a great contribution this time. There would be plenty of opportunities to brag in the future, so it wouldn't be too late, thus, he nodded and led a portion of the Alliance army to climb up the mountain peak.

When the head of the fan clan and the others reached the mountain peak, they discovered that many of them were members of the Alliance of itinerant cultivators. A little girl was standing on a large rock and lecturing:

"That's right, this battle has brought out the glory of our alliance of itinerant cultivators! This battle has brought out the iron bones of our immortal essence cultivators! "Now, all of you, open your eyes wide and stare at those scum from the nightmare race. Don't let them have any chance to take advantage of this. "When the Allied army sends reinforcements, we can successfully retreat and hide our achievements and FAME!"

Everyone was stunned. Leng Xiaojiu? Why was she and the people from the unaffiliated cultivator alliance here? Shouldn't they be stationed at the gust of wind?

The head of the fan family thought about it and felt that he understood the ins and outs of the matter! The blast was relatively close to the yellow mud mound, so Jiquan sent people to ask for help from the unaffiliated cultivator alliance. That was why Leng Xiaojiu sent people over.

Thinking of this, the head of the fan family's face suddenly darkened. This Leng Xiaojiu was really something! It was clearly his son and grandson who had sworn to guard the yellow mud mound to the death. When they were almost done guarding it, she, Leng xiaojiu, had come to take advantage of it, and now she was still spouting nonsense. What a scoundrel!

Thinking of this, the head of the fan family snorted coldly. "Alliance leader Leng, although you have contributed a lot by coming over to help defend the yellow mud mound, isn't it a little too much? Where are Jiquan and Ming Chuan?"

Yun Chujiu looked at the head of the fan family with a faint smile. "A little too much? Head of the fan family, don't you think it's a little rash to jump to a conclusion without asking what happened?"

"HMPH! I don't need to ask to know what happened. It's nothing more than jiequan calling for help from your loose cultivator alliance after he found out that the nightmare clan had used the yellow mud mound as a breakthrough point.

However, the gust of wind was a full hundred li away from the yellow mud mound. By the time you arrived, jiequan had already held on for more than an hour. Your arrival was just icing on the cake!

Even without the help of the unaffiliated cultivator alliance, the succession could still last until the arrival of reinforcements like us, "Didn't you say that you took away the credit of Our Alliance Army?" The head of the fan family said in disdain. Did this Leng Xiao Jiu really take him seriously? He was overestimating himself!

“What the head of the fan family said makes sense. However, when we arrived, the yellow mud mound had already been lost. This yellow mud mound was taken back by our unaffiliated cultivator alliance. “As for Lord fan and young master fan, Hehe.” Yun chujie curled the corners of her lips and said.

This guy was really mean. He could have directly said that fan jiquan and fan Mingchuan had defected, but he had to beat around the bush. Because this guy felt that only by slapping his face like this would he feel good! He liked to see arrogant fools slapping their faces the most!

The head of the fan family’s heart sank, and he cried out in surprise, “How are Jiquan and the others? Could it be, could it be that they’ve been sacrificed?”

“They didn’t die. They are still alive! However, master fan and young master fan have done some unexpected things. I believe that the head of the fan family will be very interested in them!”

The head of the fan family’s heart skipped a beat. “What... What did they do?”
