

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2949

The head of the fan family was practically trembling as he transferred 400 million upper-grade spirit stones to Yun Chujiu. HMM, half of it was because of heartache, and the other half was because of anger!

Hei Xinjiu accepted the spirit stones, she immediately raised her claws and said, "Alliance Master Yan, I agree not to kill the fan family's father and son. After all, although their hearts are extremely evil, due to Junior's timely obstruction, they haven't had the time to do anything harmful to the immortal essence continent.

However, this kind of character is indeed not that good. Everyone, it's best not to have any dealings with them in the future!"

The fan family head choked and immediately fainted from anger! You are simply too despicable! After taking 400 million upper grade spirit stones from him, you actually still want to step on him in the end. This is too wicked!

The corners of Alliance Master Yan's eyes twitched for a moment, and he hurriedly got someone to wake up the fan family head, and then began to discuss serious matters.

"Although the Yan clan didn't succeed this time, it also woke us up. The Yan clan has many tricks up their sleeves. Everyone must be on guard..."

Alliance Master Yan said a lot of things. The main idea was to get everyone to be on high alert, and to quickly make the kind of gas mask that Yun Chujiu provided, and finally announce the end of the meeting.

Yun chujiu walked out of the meeting tent with a smile. An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao were waiting outside, almost impatiently dragging her to the side.

“Are You Junior Sister Xiaojiu? Junior Sister Xiaojiu, you are so mean! You actually beat senior brother ten times. How did I Offend You?” An Linchuan said angrily.

He and Shangguan Hao had already confirmed Yun Chujiu’s identity. If it weren’t for junior sister Xiaojiu, she wouldn’t have said what the God said. If it weren’t for junior sister Xiaojiu, she wouldn’t have a gas mask!

“We’ll talk about it when we get back. I’ve made a small fortune today. Let’s go back and celebrate.” Hei Xinjiu didn’t admit or deny it.

An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao had an epiphany. This black-hearted Leng Xiaojiu was indeed Yun Chujiu’s troublemaker!

The two of them were both curious and impressed. How on earth did this black-hearted person become the alliance leader of the Freelance Martial Artist Alliance?

After the three of them returned to the sandstorm, Yun chujie gathered the people from the unaffiliated cultivator alliance. She first summarized the experience of this operation and then said,

“I’ve said before that the rewards are clear. This time, everyone’s performance was very good, so I specially thought of a way to earn some spirit stones. Everyone will be rewarded with 10,000 high-grade spirit stones as encouragement!”

The loose cultivator alliance’s people simply couldn’t believe their ears. Did this black-hearted alliance leader eat the wrong medicine? She actually wanted to reward each of them with 10,000 high-grade spirit stones? Did the sun rise from the north?

After a while, when everyone really received 10,000 high-grade spirit stones, their eyes were filled with tears. Although this alliance leader was black-hearted and Shameless, she seemed to be not bad.

At least they could win the war by following her, and at least they could earn money by following her. However, they had a question. Where did their black-hearted union leader earn so many spirit stones?

If these people knew that their black-hearted union leader had embezzled 90% of the spirit stones, they would definitely feed their gratitude to the dogs!

At this moment, Hei Xinjie was comparing notes with an Linchuan and Shangguan Hao. It was nothing more than showing off how she became the union leader of the unaffiliated cultivator union.

An Linchuan and Shangguan Hao were stunned. A moment later, an Linchuan widened his eyes and asked in disbelief, "Junior sister Jiu, you... do you mean that Leng Datu is Leng Kui of the yuan-killing sect?"

Yun chujiu nodded, "Yes, I gave him a fake name. Isn't It Nice?"
