

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2952

When the other generals at the checkpoint heard the words of the General Hua Tingshan, they immediately added, lamenting how the unaffiliated cultivator alliance, especially their leader, Leng Little Nine, had gone too far.

Apart from the above-mentioned things, Leng little nine still had some matters to attend to and had no reason to bet with them. Every time, they lost miserably.

Among them, the general of Fang Dou Shan who was right next to the killing wind had lost the most miserably. He had lost the power to arrange the entire Fang Dou Shan to Leng Xiao Jiu. To put it bluntly, he was now just a single commander!

Alliance Master Yan and the others were dumbstruck. Leng Xiao Jiu had only been here for half a month. How did he become a bad news bag that everyone wanted to beat up?

When the peak masters and elders of the Chaos Origin sect and the killing origin sect heard this, they immediately felt that this Leng Xiao Jiu's style of doing things was exactly the same as that bad news bag, Yun Chujiu. Could it be that this little jiu was a bad news bag?

Alliance Master Yan had no choice but to find Hei Xinjiu, who had angered everyone.

The moment Hei Xinjiu entered the meeting tent, she first greeted Alliance Master Yan and the other masters. Then, she bared her little white teeth at the more than ten pass generals:

“Oh my, so everyone is here! I was wondering why I didn’t see you all when I went to the training today. Now that I can’t see you all for a day, I miss you so much. I simply can’t eat or sleep!”

The generals at the pass snorted coldly, thinking to themselves, ‘you think of them like a bad person?’? Thinking of their spirit stones was more like it! ! Poor Thing, was it easy for them to save up some spirit stones? ! In just a few days, they were almost halfway through being cheated by this bad thing!

Alliance Master Yan coughed and said, “Alliance Master Leng, these generals at the pass have reported some things to me. For example, you led the team of the loose cultivator alliance to train... are these things true? Do you have any explanation?”

Yun chujiu nodded. “They are all right. I admit it. “However, which rule did I violate the military rules of the Alliance Army? “I have read the military rules of the Alliance Army. A person like me who obeys the rules will definitely not violate the military rules.”

It seemed that, maybe, probably, what Leng Xiaojiu did did did not violate the military rules. However, it was also true that the establishment of the Alliance army was rushed, and the military rules were also drafted. They did not expect that Leng xiaojiu would take advantage of this loophole.

“Alliance Master Yan, besides, everything I did was to increase the alertness and combat strength of the Alliance Army.

First of all, I pulled the team to strengthen their physical strength and discipline. As for the disciples at the other checkpoints, they volunteered to participate. It was already good enough that I did not charge them a membership fee. Do you still blame me?

Secondly, I had seen some flaws in the defenses that I had pointed out with good intentions and had not charged them any consulting fees. You all had the nerve to criticize me?

Finally, I had stood on the summit of their mountain to provoke the nightmare race. On one hand, I had caused the nightmare race to not be at peace. On the other hand, I had also wanted the alliance army to maintain their vigilance and their desire to fight. I had shouted until my throat had gone hoarse, and had not asked you for the money for the pills.., you’re talking about me?

I spent so much effort and effort to help the Alliance army increase their physical strength and combat strength. I poured my heart and blood into making the nightmare race unable to live in peace. I spent so much effort and effort to make the Alliance army remain vigilant. Have I expressed my merit to you? Have I asked you for benefits?

You actually came here to complain? Doesn’t your conscience hurt? It’s really too disappointing and sad!”

The generals at the checkpoint were speechless and embarrassed. How could they feel that she had done all good things and that they had become ungrateful wretches?
