

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2957

Yun Chujiu said with a smile, "Haven't you noticed that there's something different about those splendor grass?" The splendor grass usually grew towards the direction of the Sun, while a portion of the splendor grass near the Yan Clan's encampment had fallen to the ground. It was obvious that it had been trampled on by many people.

In addition, many of the branches of those shrubs had also been broken. "Generally speaking, when cultivators advance, they are different from the soldiers of the secular world. If it is not a particularly urgent situation, they will go around the shrubs.

"Now that even the shrubs have been broken, it means that they left in a very urgent manner. "It is very likely that they left last night. Our garrison troops on this side did not notice their movements because the sky was dark and they were far away."

Jia Yuanchen was dumbstruck when he heard that. He looked at Yun chujiu with a blank expression.

Oh My God, how did this Leng Xiaojiu's head grow?

Before Jia Yuanchen could react, Yun Chujiu had already jumped away.

Yun chujiu went to the chicken crow mountain beside Hua Ting Mountain again. She found that the situation at the Chicken Crow Mountain and Hua Ting Mountain were roughly the same. This fellow went to the other checkpoints to check again, and they were all the same as the situation at Hua Ting Mountain.

She returned to the windbreak of the garrison. After cursing for a while, no one came out. However, it was obvious that there were many more garrison troops poking their heads out.

Yun chujiu observed for a while at the top of the mountain. It would have been great if she could get closer to investigate. Unfortunately, the group of sand sea poisonous bees and the large red ants that she had tamed had been released back to the extreme west sand sea after they had blocked the Yan clan.

Demonic insects were different from demonic beasts. Demonic Beasts could stay in their spirit beast pouches for a long period of time. Demonic insects had to frequently go out to search for food, and they had to be in a place that was suitable for growing, this was also the reason why many cultivators did not like raising demonic insects.

Moreover, there was a concentrated baleful wind at the windscreen, so the demonic insects had no way of sneaking into the Yan clan's base.

However, hei xinjiu could basically confirm that the Yan clan's target was clearly the windscreen.

This was understandable. The Nightmare Race's crown prince had suffered a great loss at her hands. He must have hated her to death. Furthermore, the windbreak was easy to attack but difficult to defend. Using this place as an opening was undoubtedly a good choice.

The Nightmare Race's crown prince was clearly prepared to risk everything. Taking the risk of being surrounded by the human race, the Nightmare Race's main forces were all dispatched to the windbreak. They could either surprise the enemy and break through the human race's defenses in one fell swoop. Or they could be surrounded by the human race and suffer heavy losses.

This prince of the nightmare race had a unique way of doing things. If he hadn't met her, Alliance Master Yan, he might have succeeded. Unfortunately, unfortunately, he had to meet her, Alliance Master Yan.

Thinking of this, Hei Xinjiu jumped into the meeting tent of the Alliance army in a flash.

Alliance Master Yan felt his head ache when he saw Hei Xinjiu. The army pay had been given to her, so what was this guy doing here?

The moment Hei Xinjiu entered the meeting tent, she said with a smile, "Alliance Master Yan, there's a great piece of good news!"

Alliance master Yan was stunned, "What Good News?"

"The good news that our human race has recovered the lost land! The nightmare race has gathered all their forces, and it's estimated that they will use the sandstorm as a breakthrough point tonight.

“We might as well play along and let the Nightmare Race’s army in through the sandstorm. Then, we can encircle and annihilate them. At least, we can eliminate most of the main forces of the nightmare race. When that time comes, we can take advantage of the situation and continue our pursuit. We can definitely regain the territory occupied by the Yan clan.” Hei Xinjiu said with a smile.

Alliance Master Yan was stunned at first, then the corners of his eyes twitched. “Alliance Master Leng, if you have any requests, just say it. The joke you told is not funny at all.”
