

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2979

Yun chujiu did not know anything about the land of the Nightmare Lord, but she could not ask directly, so she could only nod her head.

Qing ling continued, "Don't think that following the princess to the land of the Nightmare Lord is a good thing. Let me remind you, don't be foolish.

The crown prince is the object of love for all the girls of Our Nightmare clan, and some of our princess'love rivals often go to the land of the Nightmare Lord.

"Think about it. Our princess has such a fiery temper. She often conflicts with those people. In the end, the unlucky ones always follow the princess'handmaidens.

"However, generally speaking, the princess usually brings first and second-class handmaidens. It shouldn't be our turn. Don't Worry!"

Yun chujiu nodded. So that was the case. Fortunately, she was smart and did not deliberately curry favor with Princess Pian Pian on the way. Otherwise, she might have been made a first-class handmaiden. She was really prescient!

This guy was soon slapped in the face!

Early in the morning the next day, Zi Ye came to look for her.

“Little Sister Jiu, according to reason, you just arrived and should not have accompanied the princess to the land of the Nightmare Lord. However, the princess likes you very much and specifically asked you to go, so follow me!” Although Zi Ye’s expression was well hidden, she still revealed a hint of schadenfreude.

Yun Chujiu felt that she had been extremely unlucky recently. What she was afraid of came true. She had always felt guilty, but now, she actually wanted to follow Princess Pian Pian to the land of the Nightmare Lord. It was simply killing her!

However, she couldn’t not go. That Princess Pian Pian was arrogant and unruly. Once she wasn’t happy, she might even want to kill her.

Therefore, the unlucky jiu could only follow Princess Pian Pian out of the Ankang royal residence and head straight for the land of the Nightmare Lord.

The land of the demon ancestor was close to the capital city. However, Princess Pian Pian did not go there on foot due to her status. Instead, she sat on an exquisite carriage pulled by a demon beast.

The unlucky nine was not bad. She also enjoyed herself. Yes, she sat on the edge of the carriage.

This fellow's eyeballs were rolling around. When she entered the city, she did not have the chance to take a good look at it. Now, she saw that the capital city of the demon clan was very prosperous. People came and went on the streets and alleys.

However, the spiritual powers of the people coming and going were not very high, which was understandable. After all, those with high spiritual powers had gone to the front lines to fight. Hei Xinjiu narrowed her eyes. Her current identity had basically been washed clean, but she could not release the Nightmare Qi. She did not know whether the Nightmare Qi of the nightmare clan was cultivated or born with it, so she could only deal with it as it came.

Oh right, there was also the problem of the disguise pill. A disguise pill only had the effect of ten days, and she only had one left in her hands. It would be great if she could find the medicinal ingredients to refine the disguise pill.

The carriage soon arrived at the so-called nightmare ancestor's land. It was a place that was enclosed by a tall wall. It was impossible to see what was going on inside from outside.

Hei Xinjiu was mumbling in her heart. What exactly was the nightmare ancestor's land?

However, Hei Xinjiu's attention was attracted by the plaque of the nightmare ancestor's land. She discovered that the materials used for the plaque of the nightmare ancestor's land were the same as the material of the huge coffin that she found in the chaos origin sect, it was made from the wood of the ancient strange tree "Citron".

Even though this tablet was very old, one could still faintly smell the unique fragrance of “Citron”.

“Why are you standing there for killing Little Jiu? Why aren’t you following me in?” Princess Pian Pian said with extreme displeasure.

Yun chujiu came back to her senses and hurriedly took two steps to chase after Princess Pian Pian.

“Wait a minute! It’s a routine inspection!” The two guards said in a businesslike manner.

Yun Chujiu’s heart skipped a beat. Routine inspection? What inspection?
