

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2980

Yun chujiu said timidly to princess pian pian, "Princess, they want to check. Can you wait for me for a Moment?"

Princess Pian Pian glared at the two guards impatiently. "What's there to check? ! Do the people I brought still need to be checked ? ! Moreover, the prophecy had been going on for tens of thousands of years, but there was still no sign of it. Shouldn't they hurry up and follow? ! What are you waiting for ? !"

Yun chujiu hurriedly took two steps to chase after Princess Pian Pian. The two guards opened their mouths and did not stop her.

Everyone in the nightmare race knew that Princess Pian Pian was the most arrogant and domineering person. If they offended her, it was possible that they would be killed immediately.

However, that was also true. The prophecy in the land of the nightmare ancestors had been going on for tens of thousands of years, but it had never been fulfilled. How could it be so coincidental? That little handmaiden was the nightmare of the nightmare race.

Yun Chujiu silently gave herself a hundred and twenty likes in her heart. Although she did not know what the inspection was for, it was still good to avoid it. After all, she was not a member of the nightmare clan.

Yun chujiu followed behind Princess Pian Pian and secretly sized up the so-called land of the nightmare ancestors.

This fellow felt strange in his heart. Why did this so-called land of the nightmare ancestors look more and more like a mausoleum the more he looked at it? Aiyo, this land of the nightmare ancestor couldn't be someone's cemetery, right?

From what Qing Ling said, the nightmare clansmen would come to this land of the nightmare ancestor every few days. This nightmare clansman was really sick. Why would he go to the cemetery for nothing?

Pay respects? There was no need to pay respects so frequently, right?

Just as Yun Chujiu was feeling puzzled in her heart, a few female voices sounded from behind. "Oh, isn't this the famous Princess Pian Pian? has she returned from the front line?"

"TSK TSK, the few of us really can't compare to Princess Pian Pian. Even though we knew that the war was urgent, we still shamelessly followed the crown prince to the front line. How Sensible!"

"However, it's such a pity. No matter how attentive she is, the crown prince might not like her."

Yun Chujiu's head hurt a little. It's over! These B * stars were probably Qing Ling's love rivals. If the immortals fought, the little kids would be in trouble. They were going to be unlucky again!

As expected, Princess Pian Pian was furious when she heard the words of these girls. "Shut up! Or else I'll go to the Empress'aunt and Sue you all. I'll marry all of you to the commoners."

After hearing Princess Pian Pian's words, not only were the girls not afraid, they were even more brazen.

"Aiyo, we're so scared! Princess Pian Pian, please spare us! Haha!"

"Jie Pian Pian, can you have some brains? Not to mention the Empress, even His Majesty King Yan would not easily offend the four great aristocratic families, much less marry us to a commoner."

"That's right, do you really think you can marry the crown prince? Your Ankang Imperial residence is just an empty shell. What benefits does the crown prince have by marrying you? He will definitely choose one of us."

Princess Pian Pian's face flushed red. It was obvious that these people's words had hit her sore spot. The reason why the Crown Prince did not agree to marry her was because of these B * tches!

The power of the four great aristocratic families was deeply rooted. Even King Yan had to be restrained by them. Otherwise, the crown prince would not be in a hurry to start a war with the human race..

Princess Pian Pian's gaze fell on Yun Chujiu. Yun chujiu immediately had a bad premonition.

"HMPH! Do you know who she is? Brother crown prince saw that I didn't bring a maid, so he gave her to me. Did Brother Crown Prince give her to your maid? He probably didn't even give her anything, right? I was childhood friends with Brother Crown Prince, and you want to compete with me? HMPH!"

Princess Pian Pian took back a city, and suddenly felt that bringing this little jiu back was the right decision.
