

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2986

"Little fairy, actually, as long as you destroy the statue on the round platform outside, I will be able to leave this broken temple. However, I am a remnant soul, so you have to help me find something to hide," Meng Yanshou said flatteringly.

"Is the ten-thousand-year-old green jade porcelain bottle okay?" Yun Chujiu was now familiar with collecting remnant souls.

"That's not necessary. I was born out of human greed. My soul won't dissipate when I'm outside. Moreover, the Heavenly Lightning can't kill me, so under normal circumstances, the heavenly lightning won't strike me.

"Just help me find the body of a demonic beast. I've been trapped for tens of thousands of years. I can enjoy a body too."

Meng Yanshou swallowed his saliva. It had been a long time since he ate anything. The fruit that the black-hearted little girl ate looked very delicious.

Yun Chujiu touched her chin. It would be great if this Meng Yanshou could attract the heavenly lightning. Therefore, she could not find a host that was too strong for it. It would be best if the host was weak and the heavenly lightning felt that it would be easy to kill it, since it would not die anyway, she could just change the host when the time came.

Therefore, a certain Jiu took out a wind-blade rabbit from the Great Void Mystic Realm. “Here, I only have this one living demon beast here. Make do with it first. I will help you find another powerful demon beast when I have time.”

The Poor Nightmare Beast did not know Hei Xinjiu’s plan. Although it despised Meng Yanshou, it felt that at least it had legs and a mouth. It did not hinder it from eating, so it was still okay.

Therefore, the miserable Nightmare Beast started the miserable days of changing its shell countless times.

When Yun Chujiu saw the half-soul of the Nightmare Beast enter the body of the wind-blade rabbit, it successfully possessed Meng Yanshou almost instantly. However, it was also true that the wind-blade rabbit was the lowest level Demon Beast. Its spiritual sense could not compare with the nightmare beast at all.

“Hahaha! I can finally go out and have fun! Little Fairy, hurry up and destroy the statue, then I can go out!” Meng Yanshou, who had just come out of the oven, was jumping with joy!

Yun chujiu frowned. “Curly hair, that’s not right. You said that you provided the nightmare clan with Nightmare Qi. Could it be that they don’t know how to cultivate nightmare qi and are only here to absorb you? “Moreover, you’re only half a soul. How can you release the Nightmare Qi? “Moreover, you’re continuously releasing the Nightmare Qi?”

Meng Yanshou's eyes flickered as he said perfunctorily, "Their nightmare clan can also cultivate the nightmare qi. It's just that their speed is slow. That's why they came here to take advantage of me."

Yun chujia snorted coldly. "Don't play tricks with me. Answer my second question. How can you have so much nightmare Qi to release?"? Not to mention that you're half a soul now, even your main body can't continuously release Nightmare Qi, right? Moreover, your natural talent is to weave dreams, not release Nightmare Qi."

Meng Yanshou's heart turned cold. He knew that this black-hearted girl was not easy to fool. He originally thought that she had overlooked this point, but he didn't expect that she would still discover it.

"Little Fairy, alright. Since you have discovered it, I will tell you the truth. However, there are some things that I can not say. Once I say it, I will be punished by Tian Dao. It is not as simple as heavenly thunder,"Meng Yanshou said with a drooping head.

"Tell me what you can. If you dare to lie to me again, I will make you into a curly-haired rabbit!"Hei Xinjiu's heart moved. It was not bad to give the rabbit a perm. This was more in line with curly hair's name.

Meng Yanshou did not know what Hei Xinjiu was thinking, he said honestly, "The progenitor of the nightmare race is not that B * Stard from before. They did not live in the immortal Yuan continent. It was just that during the Great War between the gods and demons, the nightmare race defected to the demons, so the entire race was tricked into coming to the immortal Yuan continent."
