

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 299

Yun Chujiu stretched her neck to take a look. She saw a slightly smaller silver wolf lying on the ground and twitching in pain.

Its belly bulged—it was actually a pregnant female wolf.

The wolf king let out a few anxious howls and gently nudged the female wolf's head with its head. The wolf king was so nervous. It seemed that the female wolf was the queen of the wolf pack!

The female wolf still did not get better and kept howling.

Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes. The wolf king had no time to even care about her then. If she did not run, when would she be able to?!

Just when Yun Chujiu was about to run away, the wolf king turned around and walked straight to Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu was stunned. What did he mean by that? Did he not care about his wife anymore?

The wolf king howled at Yun Chujiu and pointed at the twitching female wolf with his front paw.

Yun Chujiu immediately understood what it meant. She pointed at the female wolf and said, "You mean you want me to help you save the female wolf?"

Although the wolf king did not understand Yun Chujiu's words, it still understood her body language and nodded.

Oh heavens! She was not a veterinarian. How could she save it?

The female wolf was probably having a difficult labor, right? Should she perform a caesarean section on it?

Yun Chujiu was quite bold. She actually walked to the female wolf's side, squatted down, and looked at it..

Yun Chujiu took out the large kitchen knife from her storage ring, and then gestured at the female wolf's stomach. "Hey, I can only cut open her abdominals, take out the little wolf, and then sew it back together. Do you agree?"

The wolf king had really figured Yun Chujiu's intentions. It hesitated for a moment and then nodded. If a demonic beast had difficulty giving birth, there was a high chance that both mother and son would die in the end. Now, it could only trust this little human girl.

Yun Chujiu took out a wind-edge rabbit's corpse from her storage ring. She took out its intestines and washed it clean to make a meat thread. Then, she took out a needle and inserted the meat thread into the eye of the needle.

Yun Chujiu took out a few spirit gathering pills and stuffed them into the female wolf's mouth to prevent the female wolf from losing its strength.

Then, she fed the female wolf a few sleeping pills. After the female wolf fell asleep, she began to carry out the surgery with a large kitchen knife.

Although Yun Chujiu had never done any surgery before, she was still very familiar with the structure of demon beasts because she used to roast many demon beasts.

The wolf king stared at Yun Chujiu without blinking. Could this little girl really do it? It had never heard of humans having such a method to deliver a baby. Perhaps their mystical realms were too closed off, and the new method that humans had developed might be able to do it.

Yun Chujiu easily cut open the female wolf's belly and cut a small hole in the female wolf's uterus. She gently took out the cub inside and cut the umbilical cord.

Yun Chujiu was afraid that the cub would freeze to death, so she made a quilt and wrapped the wolf cub in it! The wolf king commanded a few female wolves to use their bodies to warm the wolf cub.

Only then did Yun Chujiu start to sew the female wolf's wound with the meat thread. Yun Chujiu did not do any needlework at all so the wound was crooked. Regardless, it was finally closed.

Yun Chujiu shattered the supreme grade blood clotting pill and sprinkled it on the wound.

As expected of the supreme grade blood clotting pill, the female wolf's wound began to visibly heal..

The wolf king's eyes began to glow green. Well, it was originally glowing green already. 'How can humans have such a miraculous pill?! How can it stop the bleeding so quickly?!'

After a while, the female wolf woke up. Having taken the spirit gathering pill previously, it was still in a pretty good mental state.

Yun Chujiu let out a long breath. The operation was considered a success!

Yun Chujiu stood up and was about to leave when the wolf king suddenly blocked her.

F*ck! What did it mean?

Could it be that this was going to be the story of the Wolf of Zhongsan [1]?
