

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2990

Hei Xinjiu cursed in her heart. Alliance Master Yan and his group of old FOGEYS actually didn't take advantage of the infighting in the nightmare race to take advantage of the situation. She really didn't know whether to call them gentlemen or cowards!

She could even guess what Alliance Master Yan and the others were thinking. Anyway, the nightmare race had already retreated back into their sphere of influence. As long as they didn't let the nightmare race invade again, it would be fine.

However, what Hei Xinjiu was more concerned about now was the frequent battles at the border. How could she leave the territory of the Yan Clan?

Hei Xinjiu had no way to leave for the time being. She could only find an inn to stay. This fellow lived in seclusion and was very sweet-mouthed. He did not cause any trouble.

After these few days of contact, Yun Chujiu discovered that the Yan clan people were actually not much different from the humans. Their way of life was basically the same as how they lived in the world.

What fence-sitters and whatnot, it was just a decision made by the higher-ups. The nightmare race people below just followed orders.

Therefore, Yun Chujiu's initial hatred towards the nightmare race had calmed down quite a bit.

As for the Nightmare Beast, other than eating all day long, it would read the storybooks that Yun Chujiu had collected. It read them with great interest and would even discuss the plot with Hei Xinjiu when it was free.

“Little Fairy, you are a woman who has married several husbands. Do you have a storybook where a man marries many women? “It is best to describe it vividly. It would be even better if there are illustrations!”Meng Yanshou’s eyes were originally red, now, it was even redder after staying up all night.

Yun Chujiu kicked it to a corner. “Get lost! You impure curly hair!”

Meng Yanshou was sullen. Why was it impure? He allowed her to see what she liked, but he couldn’t see what he liked? No matter what, he hadn’t married yet. What was wrong with learning first? Bad Silver!

Hei Xinjiu was venting her anger. She was burning with anxiety and wanted to return to the primordial chaos sect as soon as possible. This fellow was afraid that di beiming would find out that she had meddled with the nightmare clan after coming out of the mystic realm and punish her.

On this day, Hei Xinjiu took out the map of the Yan clan. After looking around, she discovered something.

This fellow discovered that other than the area of battle, there was a small area that could be left from the far west. She could not help but wonder, why was there no one guarding that area?

She asked indirectly and only then did she know that that was the famous poisonous miasma area. The humans and the Yan clan had no way of passing through it.

Therefore, neither the humans nor the Yan clan had any intention of going there.

Hei Xinjiu was delighted. Other people were afraid of the poisonous gas, but she wasn't! She could just leave from there and take a detour to leave the Yan clan's territory.

The eyes of the Meng Yanshou flickered. "Little Fairy, you'd better not take the risk! That poisonous miasma area has existed since the beginning. No one has ever been able to pass through it. You'll be courting death if you go."

"Curly hair, you don't know that. I'm not afraid of poison. The more poisonous, the better." Yun chujiu was too happy to notice Meng Yanshou's flickering eyes.

Meng Yanshou found all kinds of reasons again, such as the stench, the lack of food, and the detours, but none of them could stop Yun Chujiu's determination to leave the poisonous miasma area.

“Curly hair, you’re so strong in stopping me from passing through the poisonous miasma area. You’re not hiding anything from me, are you?” Yun chujia finally noticed that something was wrong with Meng Yanshou.

The Meng Yanshou shook its head like a rattle-drum. “I’m just worried about your safety. I’m your Beast Now. If anything happens to you, I won’t be able to live.”
