

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2995

When the burly man woke up, he found that his spiritual power had already been restrained. The little girl was holding a large kitchen knife and sharpening it.

The sizzling sound was simply hair-raising. The burly man instinctively wanted to scream, but he realized that he couldn't make a sound, and his body couldn't move.

After a series of "Friendly" communication, the burly man finally understood that he was not marrying a beauty, but a F * cking Jinx!

Moreover, he also understood that it was not that the beauty could not hear or speak, but that she could not understand their words!

"Fairy, please spare my life! Fairy, please spare my life!"The burly man suddenly spoke in human language.

Yun Chujiu was stunned. "You can speak human language?"

The burly man was like a dog that was bawling! He was clearly speaking human language before, Alright?

After Yun chujia interrogated him for a while, she finally understood the general situation.

Back then, when the demon race tricked the Nightmare Race to move to the immortal origin continent, the royal family of the nightmare race and the nobles naturally followed them. The remaining poor or ugly nightmare race women were not taken away.

Yun chujia ridiculed in her heart. They abandoned them just because they didn't look good? The Yan clan was really a strange species that looked at faces.

The remaining Yan clan people first coexisted peacefully. Gradually, some of them became ambitious. As time passed, they formed the royal family, the nobles, and the commoners.

Moreover, the Yan clan that stayed back then were mostly men, which resulted in the situation where there were more men and fewer women.

Only a small number of the nightmare race members understood the human language, and even fewer of the remaining people understood the human language.

The reason why the burly man knew the human language was because he was originally a noble. Later, when his family caused trouble, he ended up in this village. This was the reason why he lived alone.

“What’s Your Name?”

“Gou Er.”The burly man said an ancient nightmare language.

“Dog or dog two? Whatever, I’ll call you dog two from now on!”

The burly man:”...”

“Little fairy, what I said just now is the language of the nightmare race. If it is expressed in human language, my family name is Sha, and I’m Xing Jiu, so I’m called Sha Jiu.”The burly man did not want to be called dog two.

Little did he know that it would have been better if he had not said that. As soon as he said that, Hei Xinjiu kicked him in the face. “You can either let me kill you or call me dog two. It’s your choice!”

Buttface, who had just come out of the oven, did not know that he had accidentally stepped on Hei Xinjiu’s cat tail. He could only comfort himself. After all, most people did not understand the human language, so he would just call him buttface!

Yun chujiu understood the general knowledge here and asked about the teleportation array indirectly, buttface shook his head repeatedly. "Little Fairy, this is a secret of the dark continent. How would I know? ! If you want to know, you will have to ask the royal family or the nobles."

Yun Chujiu thought about it and agreed, so she said to buttface, "Start teaching me your words now. When I learn it, I'll let you go."

Buttface felt bitter in his heart. Did he learn it? Oh God, how could he learn it in less than two or three years? He was really unlucky!

If he knew that this was a freaking jinx, he would have lost to those people! But now, not only did he get buttface's name, but he was also trapped here to teach her the language of the nightmare race. What a F * cking dog!

Although Buttface was unwilling, he had no choice but to use the pen and paper that Yun Chujiu gave him to teach Yun chujiu the ancient language of the nightmare race.

After teaching her, Buttface was dumbfounded!

This person was F * cking Inhuman! He was simply a monster!
