

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 301

Yun Chujiu tidied up a little and started making chicken stew with mushrooms.

Soon, the fragrance filled the entire cave.

The silver dragon floated out from the rolling pin and the two foodies ate happily.

After eating and drinking, Yun Chujiu made the rolling pin stand guard at the entrance of the cave as she fell asleep.

“Master! Someone’s coming!” The rolling pin hopped into the cave.

Yun Chujiu quickly jumped up and put out the campfire with water. Then, she took the rolling pin and hid in the dark cave.

Yun Chujiu took off the spirit concealing ring and peeked out through the gap of the dark cave.

“Junior Brother Sun, it seems that someone has made a campfire here!” The person speaking was a male disciple of Heavenly Gates Sect. Yun Chujiu knew him. He was the Wang Dongliang who was defeated by Mo Zuo in the last arena match.

“Senior Brother Wang, there are no other spiritual fluctuations here. The person from before must have left! Even if he didn’t leave, he wouldn’t dare to provoke us! With our strength alone, who would dare to provoke us?!” The person speaking was someone with a duck’s voice. It was Sun Liang, who was forced by Yun Chujiu to write a confession.

“Zhang Xiong, quickly bring those three girls in! This place can be used as our bridal chamber! Haha!” Sun Liang’s face revealed a lewd expression as he laughed evilly.

Another three people came in from behind. One of them had a hooked nose—it was Elder Zhang’s grandson, Zhang Xiong! The other two people also looked somewhat familiar. Back when they were competing at Spirit Radiance Sect, they had also been on the stage.

The three of them each pushed a woman whose hands were tied with ropes as they walked in with a mischievous smile.

The three women were Yun Chuwu, Yun Chuqi, and Su Yun! Yun Chujiu clenched her teeth as she watched from behind. Now that the three of them were in their hands, she could not be impulsive. She had to think of a foolproof plan.

“These three girls are each more beautiful than the other. Let’s play here for a few days first. When the time comes, we can go out and fight for some spiritual herbs to get points!” Zhang Xiong said as he touched Su Yun’s face with his hand.

Su Yun’s spiritual power must have been restrained. She had something stuffed in her mouth and was trying her best to dodge him.

“B*tch! I advise you to be sensible! Serve us well, and maybe we will spare your lives. Otherwise, we’ll kill you when we’re done!” Zhang Xiong pinched Su Yun’s face.

“Zhang Xiong, why are you so anxious?! Let’s eat first, and then we’ll have a good time!” Sun Liang asked Zhang Xiong and the others to tie their feet with ropes and push them to the corner of the wall.

The five of them took out some dry food from their storage bags and began to eat dinner. While eating, they also said some lewd words! They did not notice that there were wisps of smoke coming out from the gap in the wall behind them.

Yun Chuwu and the other two who were leaning against the wall fainted first. Then, Zhang Xiong and the other three also began to feel that something was amiss.

“Hey... Why do I feel light-headed?”

“Me too... What’s going on?”

“Could it be that someone poisoned...”

Before the five of them could finish their words, they all fainted one after another.

Yun Chujiu walked out from behind the dark wall and fed each of the five of them a spirit-devouring powder. Then, she took out a rope and tied them into a string. Only then did she start to feed the three women the antidote and loosen the rope.

“Fifth sister! Seventh sister! Senior Sister Su! Wake up!”

Soon, the three of them woke up. When they saw that it was Yun Chujiu who saved them, they were all pleasantly surprised.

“Is there anything wrong with your bodies?” The reason why Yun Chujiu did not kill the five people immediately was that she was afraid that they fed Yun Chuwu and the others poison or something.

“Little Jiu, we’re fine. They only fed us the spirit-devouring powder.”

Yun Chujiu nodded. Then there was nothing to worry about! Yun chujiu walked in front of the five people, took out a large kitchen knife, and hacked them to death one by one.

Then, she searched their storage bags and generously put their possessions into hers.

When a certain realm spirit saw the scene, it cursed angrily, "Idiot! Idiot! Are these five humans pigs?! How could they be hacked to death just like that?! Hmph! I'll do something else. I don't believe that Yun Chujiu has such good luck!"
