

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3031

Although Hei Xinjiu scolded him harshly, her movements were very gentle. After feeding di Beiming the porridge, she casually ate some.

The danger that the two of them expected did not come. It was just that at night, di Beiming's illness became more and more serious. Even though Yun chujia forced him to drink some of her blood, it was still so cold that his lips turned blue, his body kept trembling.

"Little... Little Jiu, you... you don't have to... mind me... mind me... just endure it... it'll be fine." Di Beiming's teeth were chattering. It took him a lot of effort to finish his sentence.

Hei Xinjiu was anxious. The fur of the nine-tailed Fox should be the warmest thing in the world, yet it could not block the coldness in the gigolo's body. What should she do? !

Hei xinjiu gritted her teeth. In her book, when she encountered such a situation, it seemed that women used the heat of their bodies to warm men. How about she give it a try?

After all, she had the ten-thousand-year-old fire marrow in her body. Perhaps it could really make the gigolo feel better.

Therefore, the guy began to take off his clothes, which were thrown to the ground one by one.

Di beiming was so shocked that he could not even feel the coldness on his body anymore. "Little... little jiu, what... What are you going to do?"

Hei xinjiu smiled sinisterly. "What do you think? Of course, I'm going to take advantage of your situation and do something immoral! Beauty, come on, obey me!"

"You... Don't do anything reckless!"

Unfortunately, di beiming was now a fish on the chopping board. How could he escape from Hei Xinjiu's vicious hands? After being tormented by Hei xinjiu, he was only left with his undergarments.

Although Hei Xinjiu's words were smooth, she was still very shy in her heart. No matter how thick-skinned she was, she still had her face!

Gritting her teeth, she mustered up her courage and hugged di beiming.

Di Beiming's heart instantly beat like a drum. Now, let alone the cold, he might not even feel someone cutting his flesh with a knife.

Hei Xinjiu's little heart also thumped non-stop, almost jumping out. For a moment, her mind was filled with scenes described in the storybook. Damn it, she couldn't think about it anymore. She was a pure and good child..

The two of them didn't speak, but they felt like they were talking a lot. For a moment, the cave was filled with pink bubbles.

As the night deepened, di Beiming's cold poison took effect even more violently. Yun Chujiu felt like she was hugging a big ice cube. Her body began to freeze.

"Little, Little Jiu, you, let go, let go of me," di beiming said anxiously.

"Ptui! If you say let go, then let go! Stay there obediently. I'm in charge now!" Hei Xinjiu glared at di beiming and said angrily.

Di beiming felt pain and regret in his heart. For a moment, he wished that he could die so that he would not drag yun chujiu down.

The Frost on Yun Chujiu's body gradually turned into solid ice. Hei Xinjiu was going to shatter the solid ice on her body every once in a while. At this time, this guy was still in the mood to complain:

“Pretty Boy, don’t you think it’s convenient for me to eat ice-cold spiritual fruits in the future? This ice block is simply a sharp weapon to eliminate the Heat!”

Di beiming’s lips were livid. He could barely speak. He only blinked his eyes to indicate that he heard what Yun Chujiu said.

When Yun chujiu saw di Beiming’s appearance, her heart ached. She lowered her head and covered di beiming’s lips, wanting to transmit her temperature to di beiming.

The moment Yun chujiu and di Beiming’s lips touched, hei xinjiu felt as if something had jumped into her body from di Beiming’s mouth and rushed towards her dantian..
