

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3032

Hei Xinjiu was stunned. What the Hell went to her dantian?

While she was still in a daze, she was surprised to find that di Beiming's condition was obviously better. Could it be that the thing that caused the gigolo had jumped into her body?

Di beiming also felt that something had jumped out of his body recently. The two of them stared at each other, feeling that this world was really wonderful..

Di beiming was the first to react. "Little Jiu, quick, take a look inside and see what's going on!"

Yun chujiu heard him and started to look inside. She saw that the guai Cao in her dantian was holding something and chewing on it.

Yun chujiu did not see what it was, but it should be a living thing. Because it kept struggling, the guai Cao's leaves tightly controlled it. In the end, it entered the guai Cao's stomach.

Yun chujiu told di beiming about what she saw. Di beiming did not speak for a long time. He thought that he would definitely die this time. He did not expect that there would be a turn for the better?

However, it was clear that there was more than one in his body. Although his condition was better, it was still very cold. It was just that the hard ice had become thinner.

Hei xinjiu blinked her eyes. "Gigolo, come, let's continue. I'll help you get the rest out."

Before di beiming could react to what hei xinjiu meant, hei xinjiu pounced on him. She gnawed and bit him with all her might.

Di beiming was like a little sheep now. He was no match for Hei Xinjiu, the big-tailed wolf. He could only be manipulated by her.

However, the things in di Beiming's body might have already known that Hei Xinjiu was not to be trifled with, so the rest of them did not jump out.

Hei Xinjiu touched her swollen lips and cursed, "Damn it! "You actually learned how to be smart. I'll get you all out sooner or later! "If you don't want to die, behave yourself! "These are my men. If you continue to torment them, I'll kill you!"

Di beiming could not help but smile bitterly. "It's useless to scold them. They won't listen to your threats..."

Before di beiming could finish his words, he felt that his body had become much more comfortable. The layer of ice on his body had still turned into frost. Although he could not use his spiritual power, it was much better than before.

Di beiming: "..."

It seemed that not only were evil spirits afraid of evil people, many things were afraid of evil people!

Hei xinjiu also noticed that di Beiming's condition had improved a lot. She suddenly did not know how to show off.

"Haha! Pretty Boy, how is it? I asked if you are convinced? ! You still want to chase me away ? And you don't want to bring me in ? If it weren't for me, you would be dead ? I'm your Lucky Star. Treat me well in the future, do you hear me?"

"Little Jiu, aren't you sleepy? Go to sleep! I'm Sleepy."After saying that, di beiming closed his eyes because he had a premonition that if he didn't do that, Hei Xinjiu would definitely give him a long lecture.

Hei Xinjiu: "..."

Hei Xinjiu curled her lips. Anyway, the pretty boy's little tail was in her hands, so she had plenty of time to deal with him. There was no hurry, there was still plenty of time in the future.

Since di Beiming's condition was better, Hei Xinjiu put on her coat again and wrapped di beiming in the nine-tailed Fox's fur. Then, she yawned and fell asleep on the ground.

As for the vigilance, Hei Xinjiu let out a few silly cubs and let them keep an eye on the outside.
