

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3051

Hei Xinjiu cut and pondered. The thousand-leaf golden-grade lotus root should be quite delicious, right? When she went into the water later, she would definitely dig up a few and taste them.

While Hei Xinjiu was busy, monk suddenly shouted, "Stop! This penniless monk remembered! You must be here for that thing. Don't even think about it! You guys leave this place quickly, or this penniless monk won't be polite!"

Hei Xinjiu's heart skipped a beat. That Thing? It should be the thing that the pretty boy wanted!

Hei Xinjiu's hands did not stop moving as she said, "Not hold back? Why are you not holding back? Are you reciting scriptures?"

The monk sneered, "Humph! You are so stubborn! This penniless monk will let you experience the Buddhist Light Golden Lotus Array!"

Di beiming was shocked when he heard the monk mention the Buddhist Light Golden Lotus Array. He shouted at Yun chujiu, "Little Jiu! Come Back!"

Unfortunately, it was too late!

Several golden rays shot out from the Golden Lotus in the pond and formed the shape of a golden lotus, enveloping hei xinjiu, who was chopping the lotus.

The monk sighed. "Female benefactor, the Buddha is merciful. As long as you agree to leave with your companions, I will let you go. Otherwise, don't blame me for being ruthless."

"Ptui! You are acting like a fool! You talk about how noble and selfless you are, but aren't you doing it for your own selfish interests? What right do you have to stop us from leaving?"

“You are the embodiment of your obsession. You are greedy for the mortal world. You haven’t even reached home in your cultivation yet, and you still have the cheek to be boisterous. Get Out of my way!”

Hei Xinjiu did not have strict notions of good and evil in her bones. She did not care about saving all living beings! If anyone wanted to kill her, they could die without a discussion!

Hearing Yun Chujiu’s words, the monk was so angry that his golden body turned black. Hei Xinjiu was overjoyed when she saw it!

“Aiyo! Stop pretending, right? ! As I said, all the resentment from before has turned into Yuan Sha. How can you become a Buddha on the spot? So you are a fake!”

The monk’s face was hideous. “You! You are spouting nonsense! This penniless monk is doing the right thing. How can I become a devil? Impossible! All of you have to die today! You will become the nourishment of my lotus! Continue to purify the resentment here!”

Hei Xinjiu curled her lips. It was already like this? Why didn’t he admit it? Perhaps the so-called obsession in the beginning was really out of good intentions. Unfortunately, what was the obsession? To put it bluntly, it was also resentment. As time passed, it was inevitable that he would become a devil. It was really regrettable!

One had to admit that this fellow was really ambitious. At this time, he was still thinking about all sorts of things. He should think of a way to break the array!

Di beiming was afraid that Yun Chujiu would be in danger, so he asked Xiao Heiniaoyao and the others to save her. However, Yun Chujiu had ordered them to protect di beiming at all times.

These dumb Cuties felt that although di beiming was scary, master Hei Xin’s methods were more sinister, so it was better to listen to her.

Moreover, Master Hei Xin was full of evil, so she did not necessarily need them to save her.

Di beiming was so angry that he gritted his teeth. He could only watch as countless Sanskrit words appeared in the golden lotus flower. Those Sanskrit words turned into sharp golden swords and shot into Hei Xinjiu's forehead.

The monk revealed a cold smile. "Female benefactor, you forced me to do this! "Let the Buddhist scriptures purify your spiritual sense! "It's not that this penniless monk didn't give you a chance, but you are too stubborn. "Although killing you has added two more grudges, it's still better than letting you fall into the Devil Path..."

"Hey! Imposter, aren't you tired after saying so much? What tricks do you have? I've been waiting for a long time, but nothing happened! Aren't you delaying my work?"

After saying that, Hei Xinjiu took out her big kitchen knife and continued to chop the lotus flowers.
